

Lectures on Regulatory and Competition Policy

IRWIN M. STELZER

iea

The Institute of Economic Affairs

CONTENTS

The author	7
Foreword	9
Introduction	13
1 Thoughts on competition policy	21
Procedures for private antitrust enforcement in the United States	21
Changing antitrust standards, with special reference to predation	43
The parameters of product and geographic markets	51
Market power and competition in the age of technology	68
Comments on competition policy	76
Competition policy and superior macroeconomic performance: you can't have one without the other	85
2 Thoughts on regulatory policy	102
Lessons for UK regulation from recent US experience	102
Vertically integrated utilities: the regulators' poison'd chalice	123
A review of privatisation and regulation experience in Britain	144

3	Thoughts on energy and environment policy	166
	Making environmental regulations: reconciling differing world views	166
	Energy markets or energy policy: which way prosperity?	185
	Soaring energy prices: market forces or market failure?	215
	About the IEA	234