

Yvette Hutchinson & Eckhard Breiting (eds.)

HISTORY AND THEATRE IN AFRICA

Bayreuth African Studies 50

SATJ 13. 1 & 2

CONTENTS

Preface.....	5
I. Articles.....	7
'Anti-Slave Trade Drama' in England: 1786-1808.....	9
George Taylor, University of Manchester
Staging Black History: Re-Imaging Cultural.....	21
Christopher Innes, University of York, Ontario
The Seductive Dance Between History and Literature: The Moremi Legend by Historian Samuel Johnson and Playwrights Duro Ladipo and Femi Osofisan..	31
Yvette Hutchison, University of Stellenbosch/ Bayreuth
Suffering Visions and Present Bearings: Fugard's Theatre of the Interior.....	49
Dennis Walder, Open University
Addressing the Silences of the Past: Truth and Reconciliation in Post-Apartheid Theatre.....	59
Geoffrey V. Davis, University of Aachen
Trying to find the Stepping-Stones: Writing Tigre and Bilen Dancing in Eritrea.	73
Christine Matzke, University of Leeds
Heroes of South African History as Operatic Heroes: Akin Euba's Chaka and Nbongemi Ngema's The Zulu.....	103
Eckhard Breitingner, Bayreuth University
II. INTERVIEW.....	109
Drama and AIDS Education in Uganda: An Interview with Rose Mbowa....	111
Carol Sicherman, Lehman College, NY
III. PLAY.....	119
Ebubedike - A Drama in Five Acts.....	119
Paul Oyema Onovoh
IV. REPORTS.....	167
A Vision in a Dance: Negotiating History and Myth through Theatre.....	169
David Kerr, University of Botswana
From Strength to Strength: Thoughts on the Little Karoo National Arts Festival (25 - 31 Maart 1999).....	175
Kobus Rossouw, University of Stellenbosch

Magical Millennium Dress Rehearsal: 25th Anniversary of the Standard Bank
National Arts Festival - Grahamstown, 29 June - 11 July 1999.....179

Keith Bain, University of Stellenbosch

V. Book reviews.....197