

---

Global Dawn

---

THE CULTURAL FOUNDATION OF
AMERICAN INTERNATIONALISM,
1865–1890

Frank Ninkovich

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Cambridge, Massachusetts, and London, England • 2009

c

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Culture and Causality	1
1 A Global Civilization	15
2 Creating an International Identity: Culture, Commerce, and Diplomacy	47
3 Europe I: The Mirage of Republicanism	79
4 Europe II: Premodern Survivals	108
5 The One and the Many: Race, Culture, and Civilization	137
6 The Promise of Local Equality: Assimilating African Americans, Chinese, and Native Americans	167
7 Beyond Orientalism: Explaining Other Worlds	199
8 Empire and Civilization	232
9 International Politics	263
10 The Future of International Relations	293
Conclusion: Culture as Capability	324
Notes	337
Index	421