

OECD Proceedings

Bridging the Innovation Gap in Russia

THE HELSINKI SEMINAR

March 2001

OECD ((<

ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Summary Report of the Seminar

Introduction.....	7
Current status of Russia's innovative activity and innovation climate.....	8
The role of government.....	12
Institutional and policy frameworks.....	13
Best practices.....	14
Business environment and entrepreneurship.....	18
Intellectual property rights.....	24
Human resources for innovation.....	28
Closing remarks.....	30

Background Document: Role of the State in Creating a Favourable Innovation Climate in Russia..... 35

Introduction.....	37
-------------------	----

Parti: Innovative Activity and the Innovation Climate in Russia: Current Status

Current status of innovation in Russia.....	43
The business community.....	43
Small innovative businesses and ventures.....	45
The co-operation and integration processes.....	48
The science system.....	49
Patenting.....	53
Foreign trade in intellectual property.....	54
Fostering an innovation climate.....	55
Reasons for the stagnation of innovative activity: Preliminary conclusions.....	60
Major outstanding problems related to stabilisation.....	62
Major outstanding problems related to the creation of a competitive environment.....	62
Major outstanding problems related to market institutions and the innovation process.....	63
Major outstanding problems related to management.....	64

Part II: Development of Russia's Innovative Capacity: Guidelines and Targets

Guidelines for enhancing innovation in Russia.....	67
Improving Russia's innovation climate: tasks and measures.....	71
Putting the economy in order.....	72
Fiscal-based support.....	73
Promoting competition.....	75
Preparing the emergence and rapid development of small high-tech businesses.....	76
Leveraging venture capital.....	76
Access to finance and credit.....	77
Developing human resources.....	79
Protection of intellectual property rights.....	80
Mechanisms of innovation-based co-operation.....	80
Adopting world-class standards.....	81
Enhancing the science system.....	82
Facilitating the diffusion of knowledge.....	83
Reaping the benefits of globalisation.....	84
 Annex: Programme of the Helsinki Seminar on Innovation Policy and the Valorisation of Science and Technology in Russia.....	 85
 List of Participants.....	 91

Tables

Table 1. Global R&D expenditures by the main sources of funds, 1995 and 1999.....	9
Table 2. Distribution of R&D researchers by category of personnel.....	50
Table 3. R&D structure (percentages).....	52

Figures

Figure 1. Global R&D expenditures as a percentage of GDP, 1990-99.....	6
Figure 2. The innovation barrier: government intervention.....	15