PART I

The pyramid principle: logic in writing

1

Introduction

3

1 Why a pyramid structure?

5

Sorting into pyramids

5

The magical number seven

7

The need to state the logic

8

Ordering from the top down

9

Thinking from the bottom up

11

2 The substructures within the pyramid

17

The vertical relationship

17

The horizontal relationship

21

The introductory flow

22

3 How to build a pyramid structure

25

The top-down approach

25

The bottom-up approach

30

Caveats for beginners

35

What's a complication?

41

Why that order?

42

What about the key line?

44

	Further examples	46
	In summary	49
	Some common Patterns	50
	Directives	50
	Requests for funds	51
	'How to' documents	52
	Letters of proposal	54
	Progress reviews	55
	Transitions between groups	56
	Referencing backward	56
	Summarizing	59
	Concluding	59
5	Deduction and induction: the difference	63
	Deductive reasoning	63
	How it works	64
	When to use it	66
	Inductive reasoning	69
	How it works	70
	How it differs	72
6	How to highlight the structure	75
	Headings	75
	Underlined points	79
	Decimal numbering	81
	Indented display	83
	PART II
	The pyramid principle: logic in thinking	87
	Introduction	89
7	Questioning the order of a grouping	91
	Time order	93
	Incomplete thinking	93
	Confused logic	94
	False grouping	95
	Structural order	96

	Creating a structure	96
	Describing a structure	98
	Imposing a structure	99
	Ranking order	102
	Creating proper class groupings	102
	Identifying improper class groupings	106
8	Questioning the problem-solving process	113
	The problem-solving process	113
	What is the problem?	115
	Where does it lie?	115
	Why does it exist?	116
	What could we do about it?	116
	What should we do about it?	117
	Defining the problem	117
	Period graph books	121
	Structuring the analysis of the problem	126
	Five typical logic trees	126
	Use of the logic tree concept	130
9	Questioning the summary statement	137
	Stating the effect of actions	139
	Make the wording specific	140
	Distinguish the levels of action	146
	Drawing an inference from conclusions	150
	Find the structural similarity	151
	Visualize the relationships	153
10	Putting it into readable words	159
	Create the image	161
	Copy the image in words	163
	Appendix:
	Problem solving in structureless situations	167
