

Kalpana Sahni

Crucifying the Orient

Russian Orientalism and the Colonization of Caucasus and Central Asia

White Orchid Press

The Institute for Comparative Research in Human Culture

Contents

List of Maps and Illustrations

INTRODUCTION

PART I : THE RISE OF RUSSIAN ORIENTALISM

1 The Rise of Orientalism	3
Coercive Transformations	9
Russia as the Orient	14
Inferiority Complex	15
Orientalist Studies	18
2 Romanticism: The Caucasus of Pushkin, Griboedov, Lermontov	33
The Writer and Exile	35
Colonizing the Caucasus	36
The 'Benevolent Spirit' of General Yermolov	40
The Writer at the Front line	42
Peoples of the Northern Caucasus :
Reality and Propaganda	44
Romanticism and Orientalism	52
Lermontov, the Estranged Hero of his Times	56
Russia's Mission of 'Salvation'	60
Demolishing Romanticism	62
3 Oriental Phantoms: Dostoevsky's Views on Turkey and Central Asia	71
The Crimean Wars	72
Inner Turmoil	74
Russia as the Third Rome	77
The Fall of Geok Tepe	79
Fit for Peddling Soap	82
Visions of a Global Empire	84
4 Tsarist Colonial Practices	91
Trans-Volga, Kazakhstan and Beyond	91
Colonized Caucasus	96
Dividing and Ruling	98
Tsarist Presence in Annexed Territory	100

The New Metropolis	101
Self-Laudatory Rhetoric and Propagation of Myths	102

PART II : MARXISM, NATIONALISM AND ORIENTALISM

5 The Praxis of Marxism in the USSR	109
The Irony of Self-Rule	110
Territorial Jugglery	114
Violence and Ideology	128
The Tale of Shuya	135
Persecution of the Orientals	138
Strategy for Demographic Changes	151
Big Power Chauvinism	155

6 Desecration of the Earth	177
-----------------------------------	------------

7 Past Matters, Present Moulds: Cultural Inroads	193
Language Hierarchies and Language Policy	198
Mutilation of History	214
Unitary Literary Models	225
The State at War with Folk Epics	235
Ode to a Tractor or Hegemony in Literature	237
Further Inroads into Culture	240

8 Engineers of the Soul: The Post-Revolutionary Russian Writer and the Orient	261
Missionary Writers	263
Entrenched Prejudices	265
The New Hero of the Revolution	271
Jaan, the Soulless Apparitions	278
Accumulated Layers of Self-Righteousness	281
Glasnost	281

9 Reawakening: The Voice of the 'Other'	289
Back to the Future	292
Rejecting Transplants	295

BIBLIOGRAPHY	303
---------------------	------------

INDEX	327
--------------	------------