

Series on Contemporary China - Vol. 24

CHINA'S REFORM IN GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

edited by

John WONG
BO Zhiyue

*East Asian Institute,
National University of Singapore, Singapore*

Contents

List of Tables		ix
List of Figures	j	xi
Contributors		xv
Introduction: China's Reform and Opening in a Globalized World John Wong and Bo Zhiyue		1
Part I: China's Reform in Perspective		11
1. China and Democracy: Not a Contradiction in Terms Zheng Tongnian		13
2. China's Three-Decade Reform: An Economic Perspective John Wong		55
3. Social Reforms in the Cities: Modernity, Time Warp, and Marketing Among Disparate Urban Social Strata Dorothy]. Salinger		77

Part II: China's Reform in the East Asian Context	115
4. The Role of Japan in China's Three-Decade Economic Reform Xing Tuqing	117
5. Korea's Development Experiences and China's Economic Reform Toung-Rok Gheong	139
6. Singapore's Economic Involvement in China's Reform Lye Liang Fook	171
7. From Outward Processing to the Closer Partnership Economic Arrangement: The Evolving Economic Relations between Hong Kong and Guangdong him Tin Seng	209
8. Local Economic Transition in China: A Perspective on Taiwan Investment Chien Shiuu-Shen and Zhao Litao	233
Part III: China, the Former Soviet Union, and the Developed World	261
9. China's Reforms Compared to Those of Mikhail Gorbachev Thomas P. Bernstein	263
10. China-US Economic Relations: Cooperative Competition Wang Yong	299
11. China and the Heterogeneous European Welfare State Roger Greatrex	321

Part IV: Looking to the Future	349
12. China's Unfinished Business in Economic Reform Wu Tanrui and Bo Zhiyue	351
13. Political Reform in China: What's Next? Bo Zhiyue	365
Index	401