

Managing Government Property Assets

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES

OLGA KAGANOVA AND JAMES MCKELLAR, EDITORS

THE URBAN INSTITUTE PRESS
Washington, D.C.

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
1 Introduction Olga Kaganova, James McKellar, and George Peterson	1
2 Federal Asset Management in Australia Francis Conway	25
3 The Management Framework for Real Property— Government of Canada James McKellar	49
4 New Zealand: State Real Property Asset Management Peter Dow, Iain Gillies, Gary Nichols, and Sarah Polen	77
5 State Real Property Asset Management in France Bernard Bizet	103
6 A "Composite Image" of Central Government Asset Management Reforms Francis Conway, Olga Kaganova, and James McKellar	125
7 Municipal Asset Management: A Balance Sheet Perspective George Peterson	145
8 U.S. Cities—An Entrepreneurial Approach to Municipal Real Estate Asset Management John Hentschel and Marilee Utter	171

9	Real Property Management in the Swiss Communes Bernard Dafflon	201
10	Public Real Estate Management in Germany: An Empirical Study Karl-Werner Schulte and Christian Ecke	231
11	A Need for Guidance in Countries with Emerging Markets Olga Kaganova	255
12	Implementing Municipal Asset Management Reform in Countries with Emerging Markets: Lessons Learned Olga Kaganova and Charles Undeland	297
13	Information Systems on Public Property: Canada and Beyond Alan Jowett	317
14	Alternative Delivery Models: The Special Purpose Corporation in Canada James McKellar	335
15	Current Generation of Property-Related Public-Private Partnerships Olga Kaganova and Sarah Polen	365
16	Conclusion: Sharing Experiences—What We Do and Do Not Know Olga Kaganova and James McKellar	403
	About the Editors	423
	About the Contributors	425
	Index	429