Contents

1. Modernity and the Rupture with the Past
   - Nationalism and Modernity  14/  Lu Xun: The Paradigmatic May Fourth Intellectual  35/  Zhou Zuoren's Alternative Response to Modernity  40/  The Break with the May Fourth Discourse and Afterwards  53

2. Constructions of Culture
   - Archaism and Revolution: The Legacy of Zhang Binglin  65/  Two Ways of Seeing Time and Culture: Lu Xun and Zhou Zuoren  74/  Anthropology, Mythology, and the Affective Life of the People  84/  Japanese Constructions of Place  90/  The Presence of the Past  96/  Culture and Collaboration  104/

3. The Aesthetics of Place and Self
   - Literature and the Ineffable  120/  Archaism and the Late Ming Counter-tradition  132/  Quwei as a Poetics of Locality and Material Culture  138/  Bertse: Individual Integrity and the Relation to the Tradition  152
4 Zhou Zuoren's Humanism, the Self, and the Essay Form 169

The Debate over the Essay 169/ Zhou's Anti-Exceptionalism 196/ "Confucian Intentionality and Western Knowledge" 202/ Competing Models of Selhood 213

5 The Construction of the Nation 218

People, Language, Class, Locality 228/ Time and the Aesthetics of Ear and Eye 236/ Conclusion 244

Notes 263

Works Cited 313

Character List 335

Index 345