

BUSINESS ETHICS IN ACTION

Seeking Human Excellence in Organizations

Domenec Mele

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	xii
Foreword by Jordi Canals	xiii
Preface	xv

Part I Introduction to Business Ethics

1 The Role of Ethics in Business	2
Introductory case 1: The rise and fall of Arthur Andersen	3
Spontaneous ethics and rational ethics	6
Contemporary development of business ethics and related matters	7
Insight 1: How the business ethics movement started	8
Business ethics and its constitutive aspects	10
Ethical issues, dilemmas and improvements	11
Are profits and ethics truly related?	12
Why do corporations engage in business ethics?	13
Appendix: Some conceptual clarifications of ethics and related concepts	15
Business ethics in practice 1: Johnson & Johnson and the Tylenol Affair	17
Dilemma 1	20
Summary	21
2 Business in Society: Are the Market and Regulations Sufficient?	22
Introductory case 2: The Enron collapse	23
Business: A human and social reality	25
Business within the market economy	27
Insight 2: Is capitalism ethically acceptable?	30
Government intervention and fair competition	30
Are laws enough?	32
Civil society demands on business and its 'soft regulations'	33
Legality and morality	35

	Beyond market and regulations	36
	Business ethics in practice 2: Cummins
	Engine Corp. – Ethical training and compliance with law	38
	Dilemma 2	40
	Summary	41
3	Cultural Diversity, Common Values and International Standards	42
	Introductory case 3: Selling in a different cultural context –
	Do ethical standards change?	43
	Cultural diversity and business ethics	46
	Cultural relativism and ethical universals	48
	Insight 3: Are there common values in different religions and cultures?	52
	International ethical standards for business	53
	Appendix: Religious approaches to business ethics	57
	Business ethics in practice 3: Canon and the kyosei concept – Working together for the common good	65
	Dilemma 3	66
	Summary	66
 Part II The Individual within the Organization
4	Ethics, at the Core of Human Action	68
	Introductory case 4: Easy money on Wall Street	69
	Values, principles and virtues in human action	71
	A person-centred approach	74
	Practical rationality and human goods	75
	Insight 4: Are there some universal basic human needs?	76
	The Golden Rule: A global ethical principle	79
	Human dignity and the Personalist Principle	79
	Human rights	82
	The Principle of the Common Good	84
	Moral character and fundamental human virtues	86
	Appendix: An overview of mainstream ethical theories for business ethics	89
	Business ethics in practice 4: Francois Michelin – A person-centred vision of a business leader	94
	Dilemma 4	96
	Summary	97

5	Individual Responsibility and Moral Judgements in Business	98
	Introductory case 5: Worldcom – The dilemma of Cynthia F. Cooper	99
	Responsibility, accountability and liability	101
	For what and to whom are we responsible?	103
	Moral responsibility and its modifiers	105
	Forms of individual responsibility	107
	Insight 5: Milgram's experiment	110
	Responsibility of individuals within organizations	111
	Moral judgements: The Triple Font of Morality Theory	112
	Practical wisdom in making moral judgements	114
	Responsibility for consequences: The problem of secondary effects	115
	The Principle of Double Effect	117
	Cooperation in wrongdoing	120
	Business ethics in practice 5: Danone – The decision to close biscuit plants	122
	Dilemma 5	124
	Summary	125
6	Frequent Ethical Issues in Business	126
	Introductory case 6: Siemens – Several bribes hit the company	127
	Business contracts	129
	Misappropriation and fraud	132
	Trade secrets	133
	Conflicts of interest	134
	Tax evasion and tax avoidance	135
	Insider trading	137
	Whistle-blowing	140
	Bribery, extortion and other irregular payments	141
	Insight 6: Fighting against corruption	143
	Morality of bribery and extortion	144
	Restitution and compensatory damages	146
	Business ethics in practice 6: General Motors – Sullivan Principles and gift-giving policy	146
	Dilemma 6	148
	Summary	149

Part III Managerial Ethics

7	The Purpose of the Firm and Mission-Driven Management	152
	Introductory case 7: Wal-Mart – An innovative strategy with questionable practices	153
	Relevance of the purpose of business	155
	Mission-driven management	156
	Insight 7: The business corporation: An historical overview	157
	Is the firm only a set of contracts or a mere system of interests?	158
	The firm as a community of persons	159
	For whose benefit should a company be managed?	160
	The purpose of the firm	163
	Implications of the firm's purpose for corporate governance	167
	Business ethics in practice 7: Medtronic – A mission-driven company	170
	Dilemma 7	173
	Summary	174
8	Use and Misuse of Power	176
	Introductory case 8: A questionable use of power in Salomon Brothers	177
	Power in corporations	179
	Power, responsibility and justice	180
	Diligence and justice in managerial work	183
	Equity in managing people	185
	Misuse of corporate resources	186
	Insight 8: Abuse of power in executive compensation?	188
	Truthfulness in managerial communications	189
	Good ethical practices of corporate governance	192
	Business ethics in practice 8: Sir Adrian Cadbury and the Cadbury Report	194
	Dilemma 8	196
	Summary	197
9	Human Virtues in Leadership of Organizations	198
	Introductory case 9: Tyco – Leadership in the aftermath of scandal	199
	Leading organizations: Authority, not only power	202
	Moral character in leadership	204
	Serving and fostering a sense of service in others	205
	Wisdom in leading organizations	207
	Integrity as wholeness of virtue	210
	Insight 9: Level 5 of leadership	211

Humility and authenticity	212
Magnanimity	213
Justice, honesty and loyalty	214
Kindness, compassion, gratitude and forgiveness	215
Courage, patience, self-discipline and being positive	216
Business ethics in practice 9: Leadership of Franco Bernabe at ENI, Italy	218
Dilemma 9	219
Summary	220

Part IV Organizational Ethics

10 Ethics in Organizational Cultures and Structures	224
Introductory case 10: Boeing – Does the personal conduct of the CEO really matter?	225
Corporate values and guiding principles	227
Codes of business conduct	229
Insight 10: The benefits of a code of business conduct	230
Implementing a code of conduct	231
Organizational culture and its ethical dimension	233
Shaping ethical organizational cultures	235
Ethical training programmes	236
Reinforcing ethical actions through organizational structures	237
Ethics in the design of organizational structures	239
Ethics in job design	241
Information technology in the organizational context	242
Business ethics in practice 10: TDIndustries – A culture of trust and servant leadership	244
Dilemma 10	245
Summary	247
11 Work and Workers' Rights within the Organization	248
Introductory case 11: GAP – Combating child labour	249
Dignity of human work and workers' rights	250
Labour contracts and work exploitation	252
Fair remuneration and the 'living wage'	255
Insight 11: Has a company responsibility for the working conditions in the supply chain?	256
Occupational health and safety	257
Reasonable daily working hours and rest	258
Freedom of association, collective bargaining and striking	259
Non-discrimination in employment and occupation	259
Violence in the workplace: Sexual harassment and mobbing	262

Other workers' rights	263
Business ethics in practice 11: Surgikos – from maquiladora system to a participative work	265
Dilemma 11	267
Summary	269
12 Ethics in the Organizing of Marketing	270
Introductory case 12: Mattel – Massive recall of toys	271
Marketing, consumer rights and consumerism	274
Consumer sovereignty, paternalism and genuine service	276
Insight 12: Caveat emptor versus caveat venditor	279
Ethical values in marketing research and in market research	279
Ethical issues regarding the product	280
Fair price and abuses in pricing	283
Ethics in advertising	286
Ethics in distribution and sales	289
Business ethics in practice 12: Imaginarium
SA – Giving a real service	290
Dilemma 12	292
Summary	294
Part V Societal Business Ethics
13 The Social Responsibility and Accountability of Business	296
Introductory case 13: Nike – A true social report or misleading advertising?	297
Social responsibility of business: An historical overview	299
Does the corporation really bear responsibilities?	302
Corporate responses to social demands	304
Criticism and answers to corporate social responsibility	305
Corporate responsibility: Mainstream theories	308
Sustainable development and the triple bottom line	311
Insight 13: Can business alleviate poverty?	313
Corporate accountability	314
Auditing and reporting on CSR and sustainability	315
Business ethics in practice 13: United Laboratories – From Bayanihan culture to CSR	316
Dilemma 13	318
Summary	319
14 Corporate Citizenship	320
Introductory case 14: Shell's Brent Spar buoy affair – What lessons can we learn?	321

Corporate citizenship in the global context	324
Ethical principles for corporate citizenship responsibilities	325
Corporate responsibilities	327
Concentric circles of corporate citizenship	330
Corporation-government relationships	332
Insight 14: Are multinational corporations supplanting the state?	334
Corporate citizenship facing outsourcing and closing plants	335
Leading with a sense of corporate citizenship	336
Business ethics in practice 14: Infosys Technologies – One of India's most admired companies	338
Dilemma 14	341
Summary	342
15 Environmental Business Ethics	344
Introductory case 15: Bhopal, India – Could the worst industrial disaster have been avoided?	345
Environmentalism and the philosophical debate on the environment	347
Environmental ethics approaches	349
Animal welfare	351
Responsible use of natural resources	352
Energy resources and the responsible use of energy	353
Insight 15: Carbon dioxide and global warming	353
Avoiding pollution in all its forms	355
Business responsibility in waste production, disposal and recycling	358
Corporate strategies for environmental sustainability	360
Business ethics in practice 15: Waste concern – Cash for trash in Bangladesh	361
Dilemma 15	363
Summary	363
Notes	365
References	387
General Index	407
Index of Companies and Institutions	418