

FOREWORD	1
INTRODUCTION	3
I. GENERAL PRINCIPLES	22
A. Equality and non-discrimination	23
B. State obligations with respect to economic, social and cultural rights	33
II. THE RIGHT TO HEALTH	38
A. Legal and practical barriers that prevent irregular migrants from enjoying the right to health	40
B. Policy and legal framework: the right to health of irregular migrants	49
III. THE RIGHT TO AN ADEQUATE STANDARD OF LIVING, INCLUDING HOUSING, WATER AND SANITATION, AND FOOD	60
A. Legal and practical barriers that prevent irregular migrants from enjoying the right to an adequate standard of living	64
B. Policy and legal framework: the right to adequate housing of irregular migrants	70
C. Policy and legal framework: the right to water and sanitation of irregular migrants	73
D. Policy and legal framework: the right to food of irregular migrants	75

IV. THE RIGHT TO EDUCATION	80
A. Legal and practical barriers that prevent irregular migrants from enjoying the right to education	82
B. Policy and legal framework: the right to education of irregular migrants	87
V. THE RIGHT TO SOCIAL SECURITY	96
A. Legal and practical barriers that prevent irregular migrants from enjoying the right to social security	99
B. Legal and policy framework: the right to social security of irregular migrants	102
VI. THE RIGHT TO WORK AND THE RIGHT TO JUST AND FAVOURABLE CONDITIONS OF WORK	110
A. Legal and practical barriers that prevent irregular migrants from enjoying the right to work and the right to just and favourable conditions of work	112
B. Legal and policy framework: the right to work and the right to just and favourable conditions of work of irregular migrants	115
CONCLUSION	126
FURTHER READING	136