Wilderness and the Natural Environment

Margaret Atwood's Recycling of a Canadian Theme
Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations

Introduction

I. Nature and Wilderness in English-Canadian Literature and Criticism

1. Frye
2. Beyond Frye
3. Against Frye
4. Linking up with transnational movements of cultural change: the post-colonial, feminist and ecological contexts
   a) Canadian literature and criticism and the postmodern
   b) Is Canada a post-colonial society?
   c) The feminist movement
   d) The environmental movement

II. Critical Response to the Representation of Nature and Wilderness in Margaret Atwood's Early Texts

1. Canadian culture criticism
2. The (eco)-feminist perspective
3. Anthropological and ethnological approaches
4. Classical myths and fairy tales
5. The wilderness as a gothic site
6. (Self-) critical feminists
7. Psychological criticism
8. From a stylistic perspective
9. Ecological criticism

III. Wilderness Tips: The Representation of Nature and Wilderness and the Conventions of the Romance, the Gothic and the Pastoral

1. "True Trash"
   a) Gender connotations
   b) The popular romance as literary subtext
   c) Joanne's role as writer and creator of plots
   d) Emblematic animal imagery
e) Pastoral

2. "Death by Landscape"
   a) The gothic as literary subtext
   b) Myth
   c) Art
   d) Nature as agent

3. "Wilderness Tips"
   a) Pastoral: a sacred place
   b) The alienation of the immigrant
   c) The annihilation of the world
   d) Emblematic animal imagery

IV. Cat's Eye: The Natural Environment as Literary Space

1. Autobiography and women's writing
2. The physical environment in Cat's Eye
3. Literary space
4. The forest wilderness of northern Ontario and Quebec
5. Early childhood in the wilderness 'up north'
   a) The unalienated state of the small child
   b) Nomadism
6. The pastoral angle: summer trips 'up north'
   a) The first trip north
      i) Linear time
      ii) Threats to the ecological balance of the forest
      iii) Elaine's growing separation from her family
   b) The second trip north
      i) Healing
      ii) 'Et in Arcadia ego'
   c) The third trip north
      i) Geographical sense of place
7. Toronto: the organisation of space in the city
8. The vertical dimension in the city
   a) Spaces below the surface of the earth
   b) Spaces high above the ground
9. The West Coast and Vancouver
V. The Handmaid's Tale: Anti-Natural Dystopia and the Ideology of the Natural

1. The destroyed natural environment and the ideology of the natural 149
2. The territory of the body 151
3. Flowers: real, dried, printed, painted, and embroidered 156
4. Wilderness 160
5. The "HistoricalNotes" 166

Conclusion 169

Bibliography 172

Index 187