

Economic Reforms in Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan

Emine Gürgen, Harry Snoek, Jon Craig, Jimmy McHugh, Ivailo Izvorski, and Ron van Rooden

INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND

Washington DC

1999

Contents

Preface	vii
I Overview	i
Emine Gürgeç
II Prereform Setting and Conditions	6
Ivailo Izvorski
Political Environment	6
Demographic Characteristics	6
Resource Endowments and Initial Economic Structures	7
Bibliography	8
III Growth, Employment, and Real Incomes	9
Ivailo Izvorski and Emine Gürgeç
Growth Experience of the Central Asian States	9
Growth Performance and Underlying Factors	9
The Emerging Private Sector	13
Employment and Real Incomes	13
Bibliography	15
IV Fiscal Adjustment	16
Jon Craig
Role of the Public Sector	16
Fiscal Adjustment Policies	17
Strategies to Reduce Fiscal Imbalances	17
The Arrears Problem	20
Areas for Further Improvement	21
Bibliography	21
V Monetary Policy and Progress with Stabilization	23
Harry Snoek and Ron van Rooden
Introduction of National Currencies	23
Conduct of Monetary Policy	23
Macroeconomic Situations Prior to Reforms	23
Implementation of Stabilization Policies and Initial Results	25
Factors Affecting Money Demand	28
Impact of Capital Inflows	30
Monetary Policy Reforms	30
Central Bank Independence and Monetary Policy Instruments	30
Interest Rate Policies	31
Bibliography	34
VI External Sector Policies	35
Jimmy McHugh and Emine Gürgeç
External Sector Reforms	35

Liberalization of Foreign Trade Prices	36
Reform of the Trade System	36
Market Diversification	38
Phasing Out of Barter Trade	40
Currency Reform and Exchange Regimes	40
Currency Substitution	42
International Competitiveness	43
Management of International Reserves	45
Bibliography	45
VII Capital Flows and External Debt	48
Jimmy McHugh
Breakdown of the Trade and Payments System	48
Capital Inflows	51
Official Financing	53
Private Market Financing	53
Foreign Direct Investment	54
External Debt Management	55
Bibliography	56
VIII Structural Reforms	57
Jon Craig, Ivailo Izvorski, Harry Snoek, and Ron van Rooden
Price Liberalization	57
Enterprise Reform	58
Rehabilitation of State Enterprises	58
Privatization of State Enterprises	58
Enforcement of Financial Discipline on State Enterprises	60
Legal and Institutional Reforms	61
Financial Sector Reforms	61
Evolution and Reform of the Banking Systems	61
Bank Supervision	65
Accounting System	65
Payments System	65
Fiscal Reforms	66
Reforming the Budget Process	66
Expenditure Prioritization and Reforms	68
Tax Policy and Tax Administration Reforms	70
Bibliography	72
IX Past Lessons and Future Challenges	73
Emine Gürgen
Bibliography	75
Boxes
5.1 Stabilization Policies in the Central Asian States	29
6.1 Regional and International Trade Initiatives	38
6.2 Multiple Exchange Rate Practices	42
7.1 External Debt of the Soviet Union	51
7.2 Investment and Savings in the Central Asian States	52
7.3 Foreign Investment Laws in the Central Asian States	54
7.4 Equity Markets in Kazakhstan	56
8.1 Progress with Privatization of Nonfinancial State Enterprises	60
8.2 Banking System Reform in the Central Asian States	64
8.3 Method and Costs of Banking Sector Restructuring in the Kyrgyz Republic	66