

World Security

CHALLENGES FOR A NEW CENTURY

THIRD EDITION

A Project of the Five College Program in Peace and World Security Studies

Michael T. Klare
HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE

Yogesh Chandrani
HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE

ST. MARTIN'S PRESS
NEW YORK

Contents

Preface vii

About the Contributors xi

I / World Interests and the Changing Dimensions of Security
SEYOM BROWN 1

II The Dynamism of a Turbulent World
JAMES N. ROSENAU 18

3 / Threats and Capacities: Great Powers and Global Insecurity DANIEL N. NELSON 36

4 / The Era of Multiplying Schisms: World Security in the Twenty-First Century MICHAEL T. KLARE 59

5 / The Imperial Impulse: Russia and the "Near Abroad"
KAREN DAWISHA 78

6 / Rethinking East Asian Security
BARRY BUZAN and GERALD SEGAL 96

7 / The United States and the Middle East
MICHAEL C. HUDSON 113

8 / Nuclear Proliferation and Nonproliferation Policy in the 1990s
ZACHARY S. DAVIS 135

9 / Fanning the Flames of War: Conventional Arms Transfers in the 1990s MICHAEL T. KLARE and LORA LUMPE 160

10 / The Causes of Internal Conflict
MICHAEL E. BROWN 180

11 / The Evolution of United Nations Peacekeeping and Peacemaking:
Lessons from the Past and Challenges for the Future
MARGARET P. KARNS and KAREN A. MINGST 200

- 12 / Global Violence against Women: The Challenge to Human Rights and Development
CHARLOTTE BUNCH and ROXANNA CARILLO 229
- 13 / Transnational Criminal Organizations and International Security
PHIL WILLIAMS 249
- 14 / The Global Divide: Socioeconomic Disparities and International Security
MICHAEL RENNER 273
- 15 / The Global Trading System and International Politics
VINCENT FERRARO, ANA CRISTINA R. SANTOS, and JULIE GINOCCHIO 294
- 16 / International Environmental Cooperation as a Contribution to World Security
JANET WELSH BROWN 317
- 17 / Environmental Scarcity and Intergroup Conflict
THOMAS HOMER-DIXON 342
- 18 / Demographic Challenges to World Security
DENNIS PIRAGES 366
- 19 / Building World Security: The Need for Strengthened International Institutions
ROBERT C. JOHANSEN 386
- Index 411