

THE HEALTH OF NATIONS

Society and Law beyond the State

PHILIP ALLOTT

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

Preface page ix

Acknowledgements xv

I. Society and law

1. The will to know and the will to power. Theory and moral responsibility 3
2. The phenomenon of law 36
 - I. Making sense of the law. Lawyers and legal philosophy 37
 - II. The emerging universal legal system. The law of all laws 56
 - III. Deliver us from social evil. International criminal law and moral order 62
3. Globalisation from above. Actualising the ideal through law 70
4. The nation as mind politic. The making of the public mind 97
5. New Enlightenment. The public mind of all-humanity 132

II. European society and its law

6. European governance and the re-branding of democracy 161
7. The crisis of European constitutionalism. Reflections on a half-revolution 182

8. The concept of European Union. Imagining the unimagined 229
9. The conversation that we are. The seven lamps of European unity 263

III. International society and its law

10. The concept of international law 289
11. International law and the idea of history 316
12. Intergovernmental societies and the idea of constitutionalism 342
13. International law and the international Hofmafia. Towards a sociology of diplomacy; 380
14. International law and international revolution. Reconciving^ the world 399

Index of names 423

Index of subjects 429