

Trade Policy Reforms and Development

Essays in Honour of Peter Lloyd, Volume II

Edited by

Sisira Jayasuriya

Director, Asian Economics Centre, Department of Economics, University of Melbourne, Australia

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

List of contributors	vii
-----------------------------	-----

Introduction	xi
--------------	----

Sisira Jayasuriya

PART ONE POLITICAL ECONOMY

1 Globalization and the political economy of international trade policy	3
Arye L. Hillman

PART TWO WTO ISSUES AND TRADE NEGOTIATIONS

2 The economic crisis, labour standards and trade performance in East Asia	25
Keith E. Maskus
3 Challenges facing the WTO: determining its role in international affairs	41
Gary P. Sampson
4 The interaction between trade and competition policy: post-Doha communications to the WTO Working Group	68
Kerrin M. Vautier
5 Choosing formulas for market access negotiations: efficiency and market access considerations	90
Joseph Francois, Will Martin and Vlad Manole

PART THREE REGIONAL INTEGRATION

6 Regionalism and bilateralism in ASEAN	121
Chia Siow Yue and Mari Pangestu
7 ANZUS free trade agreements: results from a global model	153
Niven Winchester and Martin Richardson
8 New criteria for optimum currency areas	180
Herbert Grubel

PART FOUR TRADE AND POVERTY REDUCTION

- 9 Agricultural trade reform and poverty reduction in developing countries 205
Kym Anderson
- 10 Industrialization, trade policy and poverty reduction: evidence from Asia 239
Peter Warr

PART FIVE EMPIRICAL INVESTIGATIONS IN TRADE

- 11 The surge in US imports, 1995-2001 261
Mordechai E. Kreinin
- Index* 111