

Destination Brands Managing Place Reputation

THIRD EDITION

Nigel Morgan
Annette Pritchard

University of Wales Institute, Cardiff

Roger Pride

Welsh Assembly Government

ELSEVIER

AMSTERDAM BOSTON HEIDELBERG LONDON NEW YORK OXFORD PARIS
SAN DIEGO SAN FRANCISCO SINGAPORE SYDNEY TOKYO

Contents

| | |
|----------------------|-----|
| List of contributors | vii |
| List of figures | xv |
| List of tables | xix |
| Acknowledgements | xxi |

Part 1 Destination Brand Concepts 1

1 Tourism places, brands, and reputation management 3

Nigel Morgan, Annette Pritchard and Roger Pride

2 Competitive Identity 21

Simon Anholt

3 A place marketing and place branding perspective revisited 33

Philip Kotler and David Gertner

4 Nation branding: Yesterday, today, and tomorrow 55

Wally Olins and Jeremy Hildreth

Part 2 Destination Brand Challenges 67

5 The ethical challenge 69

Keith Dinnie

6 The leadership challenge 81

Malcolm Allan

7 The partnership challenge 91

Alan Fyali

8 The authenticity challenge 105

Søren Buhl Hornskov

9 The aesthetics challenge 117

Satu Parjanen, Vesa Harnaakorpi and Kaarina Kari

10 The tone of voice challenge 129

Roger Pride

11 The digital challenge 141

Jon Munro and Bethan Richards

12 The measurement challenge 155

Jeremy Hildreth

13 The future challenge 169

Ian Yeoman and Una McMahon-Beattie

| | | |
|---------------|---|------------|
| Part 3 | Destination Brand Cases | 183 |
| 14 | Branding and the accreditation approach: Singapore Can-Seng Ooi | 185 |
| 15 | Branding a 'new' destination: Abu Dhabi Sheena Westwood | 197 |
| 16 | City brands and special interest tourism: Macau Cindia Lam and Clara Lei | 213 |
| 17 | Repositioning city brands and events: Milan Manuela De Carlo and Francesca d'Angella | 225 |
| 18 | Branding and the opportunities of movies: Australia Bill Baker | 239 |
| 19 | Branding, stakeholders, and integration: Namibia Tom Buncle | 251 |
| 20 | Branding, destination image, and positioning: San Antonio Jonathon Day | 269 |
| 21 | Country brands and identity: Slovenia Maja Konecnik Ruzzier | 291 |
| 22 | Destination branding and the urban Lexicon: London, New York, and Barcelona Rosanna Vitiello and Marcus Willcocks | 303 |
| 23 | Branding a post-conflict destination: Northern Ireland Michael Gould | 321 |
| 24 | Repositioning destination brands at a time of crisis: Jerusalem Yoram Mitki, Ram Herstein and Eugene D. Jaffe | 335 |
| 25 | Epilogue: Tourism and place reputation in an uncertain world Annette Pritchard, Nigel Morgan and Roger Pride | 347 |
| | Index | 357 |