

The Anthropology of Economy

Community, Market and Culture

Stephen Gudeman

BLACKWELL
Publishers

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Community, Market, and Culture	1
The Values of Economy	5
Two Transaction Realms	9
Commensuration: Panama in the 1960s	12
Separations and Dialectics: Other Perspectives	15
From Community to Globalization	20
2 Economy at the Base	25
The Base	27
Common Constructions	34
Situated Reason	38
Self-sufficiency	43
A Fragmented World	47
3 Sharing the Base	52
Allotment	53
From Stock to Flow	55
Apportionment	56
Reallocating the Base	57
Sharing and Social Value	58
Reapportionment and Exchange Rates: Aristotle's Solution	60
Managing Generosity at Home	63
4 The Great Estate: Power, Extraction, and Expansion *o	68
Models and Historical Change	69

Self-sufficiency, Rations, and Reason	75
Contemporary Estates	78
5 Reciprocity and the Gift: Extending the Base	80
Genealogies of the Gift	81
Extending and Retracting the Base	86
Sister-Exchange	90
The Badge of Society	92
6 Trade and Profit	94
The Trade Domain	94
The Puzzle of Profit	97
A Theory of Profit	102
Accumulation	104
7 Profit on the Small	110
A Potter's Profit	110
Innovation in Groups	113
Extending the Base and Profit	116
Profit, Base, and Capital	117
8 Realms and Dialectics: Values in Production, Trade, and Use	121
From Base to Base: Transforming Objects, Relationships, and Trade	122
From Base to Capital: Appropriation, Production, Trade	126
From Capital to Base: Resilience and Resistance	132
Trade Within the Base: Circuits and Budgets	133
The Base in Trade	137
9 Political Economy Today	144
Innovating Relations	146
The Rationality of Capitalism and Socialism	149
The Questions' Today	155
References	165
Index	183