

The Viability of Human Security

Monica den Boer and Jaap de Wilde (eds.)

AMSTERDAM UNIVERSITY PRESS

Table of Contents

I	Introduction
1	Top-Down and Bottom-Up Approaches to Human Security	9
	Monica den Boer and Jaap de Wilde
II	Top-Down Human Security Policies
2	From Just War to Just Peace	21
	Mary Kaldor
3	Failing Global Justice and Human Security	47
	Willy Bruggemah
4	Governing Transnational Law Enforcement in the EL: Accountability after Fusing Internal and External Security	71
	Monica den Boer
5	The Lack of Coherence between Internal and External Security Policies of the European Union	97
	Cyrille Fijnaut
6	Ambidextrous Military: Coping with Contradictions of New Security Policies	109
	Joseph L. Soeters
	Human Security Policies from Below
	Human Security, the Military and the (Israeli) State: 'In-Between Organisations' at Checkpoints	127
	Eyal Ben-Ari

8	Human Securityfrom Below: Freedom from Fear and Lifeline Operations 149 Mient Jan Faber
9	Human Security from Below: Palestinian Citizens Protection Strategies, 1988-2005 179 Walid Salem
10	Human Securityfrom Below: Local Security Networks in the Netherlands 203 Jan Terpstra
IV	Conclusion
11	Speaking or Doing Human Security? 225 Jaap de Wilde
	About the Authors 255
	Index 257