

Kaniye S.A. Ebeku

Resource Rights, Environmental and Equity Issues

Rudiger Koppe Verlag Koln

Table of Contents

Table of Statutes	xi
Table of Treaties	xiii
Table of Cases	xiv
List of Abbreviations	xvii

Chapter 1: Introduction

1.1. Introductory Remarks: Background	1
1.2. Justifying the Methodology of the Book	2
1.3. Oil in Nigeria: Literature Review	5
1.4. The Structure of the Book	10

Chapter 2: Niger Delta, the People and the Nigerian State

2.1. Introduction	13
2.2. Birth of Nigeria: A Brief Historical Account	14
2.3. Niger Delta: The Area and the People	18
2.3.1. Geographical Definition of the Niger Delta	18
2.3.2. Other Definitions of the Niger Delta	19
2.3.3. Ethnic Composition of the Niger Delta	22
(i) Ijoid	23
(ii) Yoruboid	24
(iii)Edoid	25
(iv) Igboid	25
(v) Delta Cross	26
2.4. Pre-Colonial Political Organisation and Socio-Economic Life	26
2.5. Niger Delta People after 1914: Genesis of Minorities Status and Problems	27
2.6. Pre-Independence Fears of the Niger Delta People and the Willink Commission	29
2.6.1. Introductory: Appointment of the Commission	29
2.6.2. Demand for Mid-West State	31
2.6.3. Demand for Rivers State	32
2.6.4. Special Recommendations of the Commission for the Niger Delta People	35
2.7. Niger Delta in Post-Independence Nigeria	39
2.7.1. Political Developments and the Rise of Economic Nationalism	39
2.7.2. Status of the Niger Delta People in Nigeria	45
2.7.2.1. Definitional and Terminological Issues	45
2.7.2.1. (a). Definition of Minorities	46
2.7.2.1. (b). Definition of Indigenous Peoples	50
2.8. Status of the Niger Delta People in Nigeria: Analysis	58
2.9. Conclusion	64

Chapter 3: Oil, Nigerian Law and Indigenous Rights

3.1. Introduction	67
3.2. Discovery of Oil in Nigeria	67
3.3. The Place of Oil in the Nigerian Economy	71
3.4. Ownership of Oil under Nigerian Law	74

3.5. Ownership of Land in Nigeria	81
3.5.1. Customary Land Tenure System	82
3.5.2. Ownership of Land and the Land Use Act 1978	86
3.6. International Law and Ownership of Indigenous Land and Natural Resources	95
3.6.1. Introductory Remarks	95
3.6.2. International Instruments and Ownership of Indigenous Lands and Natural Resources	96
3.6.2.1. African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights and Indigenous Rights	97
3.6.2.2. Declaration of the World Conference to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination 1983	98
3.6.2.3. ILO Conventions (Nos. 107 and 169)	100
3.6.2.4. The UN Draft Declaration on the Rights of indigenous Peoples	103
3.6.2.5. International Aid Agencies and Indigenous Peoples	108
3.6.2.6. International Standards on Indigenous Rights and State Practice	111
3.7. Conclusion	121
Chapter 4: Impact of Oil Operations on the Niger Delta Environment and the People
4.1. Introduction	123
4.2. Definitional and Foundational Issues	124
4.2.1. Definition and Meaning of Environment	124
4.2.2. Definition and Meaning of Environmental Pollution	125
4.2.3. Environmental Characteristics of the Niger Delta	127
4.2.3.1. Ecological Zones	127
(i). Mangroves	127
(ii). Freshwater Swamp Forests	128
(iii). Lowland Rainforests	128
(iv). Barrier Islands Forests	128
4.2.3.2. Biological Diversity of the Niger Delta	129
(I). Flora	130
(ii). Fauna	131
4.2.4. Stages of Oil Operations	132
4.3. Oil Operations and the Niger Delta Environment	135
4.3.1. Environmental Impacts of Oil Operations: Introduction	137
4.3.1. (a). Meaning of Oil Pollution	137
4.3.1. (b). Oil Spillage and the Niger Delta: Frequency of Occurrence	137
4.3.1. (c). Causes of Oil Spillage	139
4.3.2. Impact of Oil Pollution (Oil Spills) on the Niger Delta Environment	141
4.4. Environmental Impact of Gas Flaring	146
4.5. Niger Delta Environment and Other Sources of Oil-Related Environment Damage	152
4.6. Environmental Impact of Oil Operations on the Niger Delta Wetlands	156
4.7. Impact of Oil Operations and Nigerian Courts: Case-Studies	158
4.7.1. Oil Production-Related Cases	158
4.7.2. Oil Exploration-Related Cases	164
4.8. Social Impacts of Oil Operations	170

4.8.1. Loss of Land and Resources	171
4.8.2. Impact of In-migration	174
4.8.3. Loss of Self-Esteem	177
4.8.4. Social Dislocation and Social Disintegration	178
4.9. Conclusion	180

Chapter 5: Oil Operations and the Protection of the Niger Delta Environment

5.1. Introduction	183
5.2. National Policy on the Environment	186
5.2.1. Historical Background	186
5.2.2. National Policy on the Environment: A Nutshell	188
5.2.2.1. The Policy Goal	189
5.2.2.2. Selected Policy Statements and Implementation Strategies	190
a) Water Resources Management	190
b) Forestry, Wildlife and Protected Natural Areas	190
c) Marine and Coastal Area Resources	191
d) Mining and Mineral Resources/Energy Production and Use	191
e) Oil and Gas	191
f) Public Participation	192
g) Institutional/Legal Arrangements	192
5.3. Oil-Related Environmental Protection Statutes	193
i). Criminal Code	194
ii). Petroleum Act/Petroleum Regulations	195
iii). Oil Pipelines Act	199
iv). Oil in Navigable Waters Act	201
v). Associated Gas Re-Injection Act	204
vi). Environmental Impact Assessment Decree 1992	208
(a). Introductory: The Basic Concept of EIA	208
(b). EIA in Nigeria: The EIA Decree 1992	210
vii). Federal Environmental Protection Agency Act	214
a. Water Quality	216
b. Effluent Limitations	217
c. Hazardous Substances	219
5.4. Oil Companies and Protection of the Niger Delta Environment	226
5.5. TNCs and International Environmental Standards	231
5.6. Enforcement of Environment Protection Laws in Nigeria	236
5.6.1. Administrative Enforcement	236
a) Financial Viability	237
b) Adequacy of Sanctions	238
c) Adequacy of Manpower	238
d) The Role of Corruption	239
e) Institutional Conflicts	239
f) Socio-economic-politico Factor	240
5.6.2. Nigerian Judiciary and Enforcement of Environment Standards	241
5.7. International Law and the Protection of Indigenous Peoples' Environment	245
5.8. Conclusion	249

Chapter 6: Niger Delta, Oil Operations and Equity Issues
6.1. Introduction	253
6.2. Definition of Term: 'Equity'	254
6.3. Indicators of Equity	255
6.3.1. Participation	255
6.3.2. Compensation	262
a. Compensation for Land Acquisition	263
b. Compensation for Oil Operations Damage	268
6.3.3. Employment	276
6.3.4. Development	282
6.3.5. Distribution of Oil Revenue	291
6.4. Protests and Demands for Equity: Movements for Resource Control	300
6.4.1. Demands of the Movement for the Survival of Ogom People (MOSOP)	303
6.4.2. Demands of Ijaw Youths Council (IYC)	306
6.4.3. Demands of Other Groups	307
6.4.4. Governors of Niger Delta States and Resource Control	308
6.5. Federal Government's Response to the People's Demands	309
6.5.1. Oil Mineral Producing Areas Development Commission (OMPADEC)	309
6.5.2. Niger Delta Development Commission (NDDC)	312
6.6. Conclusion	315
Chapter 7: Conclusions and Recommendations
7.1. Summary of Findings and Conclusions	317
7.2. Recommendations: Towards Peace and Equity in the Niger Delta	320
7.2.1. Provision for Participation and Control of Resources	320
7.2.2. Repeal of Obnoxious and Contentious Statutes	322
7.2.3. Employment of Local People by Oil Companies	322
7.2.4. Revival of Agricultural Sector	323
7.2.5. Reform of Nigerian Land Law	323
7.2.6. Provision for the Payment of Adequate Compensation	324
7.2.7. Recognition of Social Responsibilities by Oil Companies	325
7.2.8. Reform and Enforcement of Environmental Standards	326
7.2.9. Protection and Conservation of Biodiversity and Wetlands	326
7.2.10. Development Agency and Government Responsibilities	327
7.2.11. Development Agency and Participation of the People	328
7.2.12. Revenue Allocation	328
7.3. The Future of the Niger Delta and its People	329
7.4. Directions for Future Research	330
Appendix I.: International Instruments on the Rights of Indigenous People	333
Appendix II.: African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights	337
Select Bibliography	341
Index	363