

Who Really Made Your Car? Restructuring and Geographic Change in the Auto Industry

Thomas Klier
James Rubenstein

2008

W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research
Kalamazoo, Michigan

Contents.

Acknowledgments	xi
1 The Parts of Your Vehicle	1
Principal Objectives of the Book	2
Data for This Book	8
Book Outline	13
Carmaker-Supplier Relations	14
Outlook and Uncertainties	25
Part 1: Detroit: Heart of the Auto Industry	29
2 Rise and Fall of Vertical Integration in the Midwest	31
Benefits of Vertical Integration	32
Pioneering Parts Producers	34
Vertical Integration at Ford and GM	38
Vertical Disintegration at Ford and GM	46
Outlook and Uncertainties	52
3 Supplying the Power	55
Powertrain Assembly in the Midwest	57
Powertrain Components in the Midwest	65
International Carmakers Powertrain	75
Outlook and Uncertainties	80
4 The Body Builders	83
Stamping of Body Parts	83
Painting the Body: Capturing a Mood	95
From Bumpers to Fascia	100
Outsourcing Complete Exterior Modules	103
Outlook and Uncertainties	105
5 Supplying the Suppliers	109
Typical Lower-Tier Suppliers	110
Large Lower-Tier Suppliers	114
Leading Suppliers of Commodities	120
Reducing Price While Raising Value	129
Outlook and Uncertainties	130

Part 2: Carmaker—Supplier Networks: How Close Is Close Enough? 133

6 The Closely Linked Supply Chain	135
Just-in-Time Production	136
Networks of Suppliers and Assemblers	141
Outlook and Uncertainties	156
7 Seat Supplier Right Next Door	159
It All Started with Seats	161
The Rest of the Interior	170
Interior Systems Integrators	176
Outlook and Uncertainties	179
8 Delivering the Goods	181
3PLs: Moving the Freight ;and Managing the Chain	182
Coordinating and Managing Logistics	192
Outlook and Uncertainties	200

Part 3: Shifting Fortunes along Auto Alley 203

9 Emergence of Auto Alley	205
Before Auto Alley	207
The North-South Auto Alley	213
Outlook and Uncertainties	226
JO Abandoning Ohio: A Tale of Two Cities.	229
Rise and Fall of Rubber City	230
Risk and Fall of Glass City	241
Outlook and Uncertainties	248
11 Chassis Suppliers Move South in Auto Alley	251
Hanging on in the Midwest	253
Chassis Parts Production Moves South	260
North-South Battleground	266
Outlook and Uncertainties	272
12 Working for Suppliers	275
Rise and Fall of Auto Unions	277
State of the Union in the Twenty-first Century	288
Outlook and Uncertainties	296

Part 4: The Endangered U.S. Supplier	299
13 The Rising Tide of Imports	301
Nationality of Largest Suppliers	302
Which Types of Parts Are Imported?	305
The Big Picture in Trade •	307
National Origin of Imports	313
Which Types of Parts Are Exported? •	323
Outlook and Uncertainties • •	326
14 The Driving Force: Electronics Suppliers	329
Performance: Getting Power from the Engine to the Accessories	331
Safety Systems	339
Interior Convenience Components	346
Outlook and Uncertainties: Will!the Tail Wag the Dog? '	352
15 Conclusion: Surviving the Car Wars	355
Summary of Findings	357
Outlook and Uncertainties for Parts Suppliers	358
Outlook and Uncertainties for Communities	363
Conclusion -	368
References	371
The Authors	397
Index	399
About the Institute ' '	425