

VOLUME 2

THE COLLECTED WORKS OF ARTHUR SELDON

The State Is Rolling Back

Essays in Persuasion

ARTHUR SELDON

Edited and with a New Introduction

by Colin Robinson

LIBERTY FUND, Indianapolis

CONTENTS

Introduction, Colin Robinson	xi
Preface, Colin Robinson	xxiii
Foreword, Simon Heffer	xxv
Foreword, Patrick Minford	xxvii
Foreword, John Redwood	xxix
Acknowledgements	xxx1
Prologue	xxxiii

PART I: The Battle of Ideas for the Good Society

1. The State v. the Market: Socialism v. Capitalism [1937] 3
2. Liberalism and Liberty: The Diffusion of Property [1938] 10
3. The New World Order—H. G. Wells' Myth [1940] 17
4. The Contribution of Economics to Policy [1955] 21
5. Citizenship—The Cul-de-Sac [1958] 28
6. The Perpetual Welfare State [1968] 33
7. Conservatism and Liberalism [1968] 38
8. Individual Liberty and Representative Democracy [1979] 46
9. La Trahison des Clercs [1980] 49

PART II: Classical Market Thinking Applied to Industry

10. The Brewers' Dilemma [1950] 63
11. Reform the Licensing Laws [1957] 69
12. Best Friends of Shoppers: Which? Or Competition? [1963] 73
13. Markets in Welfare to Strengthen the Economy [1966] 77
14. Wind Up National Insurance [1971] 81
15. Inflation Is Crueller than Unemployment [1972] 84

16. Police: Compete or Retreat [1977] 88
17. The Truth About Unemployment [1982] 94
18. Underground Resistance to Over-Government [1986] 98

PART III: Wither the Welfare State

A: The Growing Disquiet, 1950–1964

19. A Private Welfare State? [1957] 103
20. Why State Pensions? [1958] 106
21. Contract In or Out? [1960] 110
22. Pensions and Property [1960] 114
23. Social Services in the Late Twentieth Century [1961] 119
24. Social Services for the Future, Not the Past [1962] 127
25. Universities Out of Politics [1962] 131
26. Beveridge Came Too Late [1963] 136
27. Homes: Clear the Obstacles [1963] 148
28. Wanted—Home Entrepreneurs [1964] 153

PART IV: Wither the Welfare State

B: The Mounting Attack, 1965–1970

29. Shop with Welfare Vouchers [1965] 163
30. A Free Market—or Political Mortgages [1965] 167
31. Privatised Welfare: A New Strategy [1965] 173
32. Politics Looms Too Large [1966] 177
33. Tax State Benefits [1966] 181
34. Make Social Services Selective [1967] 186
35. Workers Reject State Welfare [1969] 191
36. Roll Back the State [1969] 196

PART V: Wither the Welfare State

C: First Steps in Reforms, 1970–1992

37. The Great Pensions Swindle [1970] 203
38. Top Up the Poor Man's Pay [1971] 207
39. Tory Advance: Reluctant Officials [1971] 211
40. Timid Tories and State Welfare [1972] 215

- 41. The State Is Usurping Parents [1978] 222
- 42. Move Universities to the Market [1980] 227
- 43. Political Bar to Economic Progress [1988] 233

PART VI: The Excesses of Over-Government

- 44. Whose Obedient Servant? [1969] 245
- 45. Can Bureaucrats Be Neutral? [1972] 248
- 46. Phase Out the Civil Servants [1979] 252
- 47. Government of the Busy, by the Bossy, for the Bully [1980] 256
- 48. Price-less Opinion Polling [1980] 260
- 49. “New Right” and New Government [1983] 264
- 50. New Left: Beware Politics [1988] 268
- 51. Capitalism Is More Corrigible Than Socialism [1986] 272
- 52. Policies: The Difficult and the “Impossible” [1988] 276
- 53. Too Little Government Is Better Than Too Much [1990] 287
- 54. Laissez-faire in the Twenty-first Century [1992] 290

Index 297