

The Vietnamese
Economy and Its Transformation to an
Open Market
System

Foreword by Ambassador Bui Diem

William T. Alpert, Editor

M.E. Sharpe
Armonk,
London,

Contents

---

---

Foreword
Ambassador Bui Diem	vii
Introduction and Acknowledgments
William T. Alpert	ix
1. Toward a Market Economy in Vietnam: Economic Reforms and Development Strategies for the Twenty-first Century
Bui Diem, William T. Alpert, and the Pacific Basin Research Institute Associates	3
2. Cultural Issues in Vietnam's Transition
Ton That Thien	13
3. Recent Economic History: A Stalled Expansion
William T. Alpert and Sol Sanders	32
4. A Profile of Vietnam's Land and Peop
Manh Hung Le	44
5. Prospects for Fiscal Reform in Vietnam
Tran Van Kiem	61
6. Tax Policy for Vietnam
Charles E. McLure Jr.	72
7. Reforming Vietnam's Legal Institutions
Pham Duong Hien with Nguyen Cuong Hguyn	128

8. Foreign Investment and Trade William Sharpe	143
9. Vietnam in the World of the 1990s Bernard T.K. Joei	164
10. Banking Reform in Vietnam Nguyen-Xuan Nghia	200
11. Muddling Through: U.S. Policy Options in a Straitened Asia Sol W. Sanders	215
About the Editor and Contributors	261
Index	265