Martin Hagen
Herbert Kubicek
(Editors)

One-Stop-Government in Europe

Results of 11 national surveys

University of Bremen Bremen 2000

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface V

Herbert Kubicek and Martin Hagen
I One-Stop-Government in Europe: An Overview 1
1. The need for One-Stop-Government 1
2. Filling a knowledge gap 4
3. One-Stop-Government definition 7
4. Results 11
4.1 National strategies 11
4.2 Types of implemented One-Stop-Government 12
4.3 Delivery channels of implemented One-Stop-Government projects 13
4.4 Policy areas of implemented One-Stop-Government 14
4.5 Status of One-Stop-Government 18
4.6 Typical Barriers 21
5. Outlook 26
6. References 28
7. Appendix: List of Cases . 29

Georg Aichholzer, Rupert Schmutzer and Dieter Sepp
II Austria 37
1. One-Stop-Government concepts in Austrian public administration reform 37
2. Case Studies 41
2.1 Express service for business procedures, Lower Austria 43
2.2 Administrative reform, state of Vorarlberg 46
2.3 Electronic files, city of Salzburg 47
2.4 Citizen office Furstenfeld 49
2.5 Citizen office Waidhofen/Ybbs ~ 50
2.6 Student card of the Vienna University of Economics 51
2.7 Plant office Grieskirchen 53
2.8 Vehicle registration 55
2.9 Modular design of procedures, city of Linz 56

2.10 Model district authority, Zell am See 58
2.11 Austrian Employment Services 59
2.12 Model district police office Liesing 61
3. Best Practices 63
3.1 Model district authority, Zell am See 64
3.2 Austrian Employment Services 68
3.3 Model district police office Liesing 71
4.. Assessment of One-Stop-Government in Austria 74
5. References . 77

Claire Lobet-Maris and Beatrice van Bastelaer in collaboration with Anne De Vos

III Belgium 79
1. One-Stop-Government concepts in Belgian public administration reforms 79
1.1 One-Stop-Government "language" in public administration reform policy papers 79
1.2 One-Stop-Government "language" in public administration literature 84
2. Case Studies 86
2.1 List of the selected projects 86
2.2 Federal level: SFI - Boite Postale 3000 90
2.3 Regional level - Flanders: Infolijn 93
2.4 Regional level - Flanders: WIS-KISS VDAB 95
2.5 Regional level - Flanders: Kmoloket 98
2.6 Regional level - Flanders: IWT-KMO-Netwerk 101
2.7 Regional level - Flanders: EDISON 103
2.8 Regional level - Wallonia:'PBFlow 105
2.9 Regional level - Wallonia: Telephone Vert 108
2.10 Regional level - Wallonia: Hotjob - SIC 111
2.11 Local level: Antwerp DMA/MANAP 116
2.12 Local level: Digital city of Charleroi 121
3. Best practices 124
3.1 Local level: Antwerp digital city - DMA/MANAP 124
3.2 Regional level- Wallonia: Telephone Vert 127

4. Assessment of One-Stop-Government in each country 132
4.1 What kind of One-Stop-Government concepts (based on the classification) are championed both by politicians and in practice in each country? 132
4.2 In what policy areas is One-Stop-Government feasible? 134
4.3 What policy decisions have to be made and which organisational settings have to be chosen for successful One-Stop-Government projects? 136

Christian Sorbye Friis and Ole Buch
IV Denmark 139
1. One-Stop-Government concepts in Danish public administration reform 139
1.1 Administrative reforms 140
1.2 One-Stop-Government Concepts in Danish Public administration reform 141
1.3 Central Policy Documents; The national level 143
1.4 Central Policy-documents; The local government level 145
2. Case Studies 146
2.1 Municipality of Helsing0r; "Citizen self-service" www.helsingorkommune.dk 147
2.2 Municipality of Naestved; "Citizen self-service" www.naeskom.dk 148
2.3 Other municipalities 150
2.4 The Customs and Taxation Agency, www.toldskat.dk 150
2.5 The National Information Services, The Official Home Page for Denmark, www.danmark.dk 153
3. Best Case 156
3.1 Ministry of Business and Industry www.indberetning.dk 156
4. Assessment of One-Stop-Government in Denmark 160
References 161

Andrew Petrie, Nick Brewer and Christine Bellamy
V England and Wales 163
1. The concept of one-stop government in England and Wales 163
1.1 The changing institutional context of One-Stop-Government 163
1.2 The concept of one-stop government in Local Government 165
1.3 Building strategy in central government 166
1.4 Scholarly literature and comment 170
2. Case Studies 171
2.1 Rationale for the selection of the case studies 171
2.2 Government Secure Intranet 172
2.3 IForms 175
2.4 Electronic Communication of Tax Information 177
2.5 ONE - Pilot Call Centre for Job Seekers 179
2.6 Lewisham One-Stop Shop 182
2.7 Project ACCORD (Acess to CORporate Data) 185
2.8 Single Business Register Feasibility Study 187
2.9 Business with Government 189
2.10 Jigsaw - Government Services for Rural Wales 191
3. Best Practices 193
3.1 IForms 193
3.2 ONE 197
4. Assessment 200
5. References 204

Gudrun Klee-Kruse
VI Finland 209
1. One-Stop-Government concepts in Finnish public administration reform 209
1.1 Public administration in Finland 209
1.2 One-Stop-Government in public administration reform 210
2. Case Studies 211
2.1 Overview 211
2.2 Project description 211

2.3 Problem area 213
2.4 One-Stop-Government roots 214
2.5 Status of project 215
2.6 Organizational cooperation 216
2.7 Integration in existing processes 217
2.8 Technological infrastructure 217
2.9 Legal framework 217
2.10 Funding 218
2.11 Coupling with other initiatives 218
3. Assessment of One-Stop-Government in Finland 220
4. References 221

Jean-Paul Baquiast
VII France 223
1. One-Stop-Government concepts in French public administration reform 223
1.1 One-Stop-Government in public administration reform 226
1.2 One-Stop-Government in public administration literature 230
2. Case Studies - 231
2.1 Central administrations. National level. The Net-Entreprises project 231
2.2 Prefectures 236
2.3 Cities: Parthenay District 239
3. Best Practices 241
4. Assessment of One-Stop-Government in France 242
5. References 244

Martin Hagen
VIII Germany 245
1. One-Stop-Government concepts in German public administration reform 245
1.1 One-Stop-Government in public administration reform 247
1.2 One-Stop-Government in public administration literature 250

2. Case Studies 252
2.1 Unna 253
2.2 Hagen 257
2.3 Russelsheim 262
2.4 Bismark 265
2.5 RegioSignCard Niirnberg 269
2.6 Bremen Online Services (Bremen) 274
2.7 DiBIS Hamburg 280
2.8 ELSTER 283
2.9 SPACE 287
3. Best Practices 291
3.1 Hagen 291
3.2 Bismark 295
3.3 Bremen 301
4. Assessment of One-Stop-Govemment in Germany 307
References 311

Jessica Bates
IX Ireland 315
1. One-Stop-Govemment concepts in Irish public administration reform 315
1.1 Public administration in Ireland: a brief overview 315
1.2 One-Stop-Govemment in public administration reform 319
1.3 One-Stop-Govemment in scholarly literature and public administration research 331
2. Case Studies 335
2.1 Kiosk-based Integrated Multimedia Service Access for Citizens (KIMSAC) 336
2.2 Vehicle Registration Tax Information Kiosk, Office of the Revenue Commissioners 339
2.3 Laois County Council information kiosk project 342
2.4 Donegal County Council one-stop-shop project 344
2.5 Meath County Council one-stop-shop project 346
2.6 Customer Services Department (CSD), Eastern Health Board (EHB) 348

2.7 Northside Citizens Information Centre Limited (NCIC) 351
2.8 Northside Partnership 353
2.9 Citizens Information Database, National Social Services Board 355
2.10 Life Events Database, National Social Services Board 357
2.11 Ennis, Co Clare, Ireland's 'Information Age Town' 359
3. Challenges / Best Practice 362
3.1 Northside Partnership 363
3.2 Meath County Council 364
3.3 Ennis, Ireland's Information Age Town 366
4. Assessment of One-Stop-Govemment in Ireland 368
5. References 370

Silvio Salza and Paola Marsocci
X Italy 375
1. One-Stop-Govemment concepts in Italian public administration reform 375
1.1 Decentralisation and modernisation of the public administration 375
1.2 Technical issues 378
2. Case studies 381
2.1 Integrated window for business activities 381
2.2 Integrated window for disease prevention of Regione Calabria 383
2.3 Integrated window for judicial certification of the Court of Appeal of Bari 384
2.4 Integrated polyfunctional window for immigration of the Prefecture of Arezzo 385
2.5 Self-service windows of the Internal Revenue Service 387
2.6 The network of polyfunctional windows of the town ofBologna 388
2.7 The City Network of South Tyrol 389
2.8 Siena Card, citizen's electronic card 390
2.9 City of Milano citizen's electronic card 391
3. Best Practices 392

3.1 Siena Card 392
3.2 Integrated window for business activities of the town of Bologna 395
4. Assessment of One-Stop-Government in Italy 397
5. References 399

Kristel hammers and Miriam Lips
XI Netherlands 401
1. One-Stop-Govemment concepts in Dutch public administration reform 403
1.1 One-Stop-Govemment in Dutch public administration reform 404
1.2 One-Stop-Govemment in Dutch public administration literature 407
2. Case Studies 408
2.1 Delft 408
2.2 Leiden 411
2.3 Meppel 413
2.4Aalburg 415
2.5 Almelo 416
2.6 Alphen aan den Rijn 419
2.7 Eindhoven 421
2.8 Emmen 423
2.9 Utrecht 424
2.10 Amsterdam Region 427
2.11 The Hague 429
2.12Tilburg 431
2.13Tytsjerkstradiel 433
3. Best Practices 435
3.1 Enschede 436
3.2Nijmegen 444
3.3 Ede 455
4. Assessment of One-Stop-Govemment in the Netherlands 461
5. References 464

Raquel Gallego, Natalia Rosetti and Tamyko Ysa
XII Spain 467
1. One-Stop-Govemment concepts in Spanish public administration reform 467
1.1. List of cases 474
2. Case Studies 475
2.1 "DIBA", The Province of Barcelona Telematics Network 476
2.2 Electronic processing in the Barcelona City Council 476
2.3 Unified Access Service of the Barcelona Port 477
2.4 Callcentre: Citizens' Service Telephone (012) of the Autonomous Government of Catalonia 478
2.5 "Municipal Single Window": Citizens' Services Office of Irun City Council (Basque Country) 479
2.6 Information system of the Transport Regional Consortium of the Autonomous Community of Madrid 479
2.7 The Unified Management Office for industrial establishments of the Autonomous Government of Catalonia 480
2.8 Administrative Procedure Management System of the Autonomous Government of Galicia 481
2.9 Information systems of the Vitoria City Council 482
2.10 Information Service 010 of the Barcelona Local Council 482
3. Best Practices 483
3.1 Telematics Network of the Province of Barcelona 484
3.2 Information Systems of the Vitoria City Council 487
3.3 The Unified Management Office of the Catalan Regional Government 491
3.4 INFOVILLE, Digital Sites of the Autonomous Government of Valencia . 495
4. Assessment of One-Stop-Govemment in Spain 499
5. References 504