

China's Trade and Investment after the Asia Crisis

Edited by

Tran Van Hoa

Associate Professor of Economics, University of Wollongong, Australia

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	ix
Editor's biographical notes	xi
Notes on contributors	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
1 China's trade and investment after the Asia crisis: an overview Tran Van Hoa	1
2 China's trade in a globalized economy: trends, patterns and future policy Tran Van Hoa	4
3 Foreign investment in China after the Asia crisis Zhao Yanyun and Ye Liqi	29
4 China, the World Trade Organization and regional economic cooperation Hyun-Hoon Lee and Chung Mo Koo	35
5 China's stock market: emergence, development and perspective Shiguang Ma	56
6 Hong Kong: fundamentals of international trade and monetary policy Tran Van Hoa	90
7 Australia-China trade after the Asia crisis Zhao Yanyun and Li Jingping	110
8 China's recent macroeconomic developments and policy with implications for trade Charles Harvie	123
9 China's trade and investment in the new millennium Tran Van Hoa	145
Index	151