

Europe as an Economic Powerhouse

How the old continent is gaining new strength

Heino FaBbender

London and Philadelphia

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction	1
Part I Analysis of the state of Europe	7
1 Europe's lost decade - '1992' and all that	9
The world champion challenged! 10; Europe's plans: high hopes, great expectations 15; 2006: reality comes calling 24
2 Europe's real crisis	33
Disappointing growth rates 34; It's the productivity, stupid 36; The myth of the destructive welfare state 42; The myth of the generous welfare state 50; The myth of globalization dangers 56; Europe's ticking time bomb 65; Productivity growth: the most important way out 71
3 Why the US model is not suited to Europe - and what we can learn anyway	75
The United States as a model: a brief survey 77; Success on a shaky foundation? The United States in 2006 102; Selective learning instead of omnibus solutions 111

4	Economic indicators and the right measures	117
	Origins and limits of the 'gross domestic product' 118; Beyond macroeconomics 120; The Quality-of-Life Index 125
	Part II Europe's journey to the top	139
5	The power of unity	141
	Completing the single market 141; 1992 and the consequences 142; Bigger, better - richer? 153; Financial services and capital markets 163; Expansion: a big step towards the single market? 171
6	What comes after deregulation? Smart regulation!	175
	Catching up through deregulation: two examples 176; Limitations and risks of deregulation 180; Smart regulation instead of simple deregulation 186; New ground rules for the old continent? 194
7	The concept of category definition	203
	Category definition and redefinition 204; Creating and sustaining category definition 206; Examples of European category definition 209; Missed opportunities for category definition 225; Beyond the company: 'Made in Germany' 227; Category definition for Europe 229; How the public sector can support the category definition process 238
8	Reinventing the state	241
	Investing in Europe's future 244; Trimming state spending to invest in the future 253; Secondary effects: why 'less government can be more' 265; Getting the job done 267
9	Epilogue	271
	A voice for Europe in world affairs 272; Making it happen 274
	Notes	283
	References	289
	Index	303