

Is God an Economist?

An Institutional Economic Reconstruction of the Old Testament

Sigmund Wagner-Tsukamoto

School of Management, University of Leicester, UK

, 1

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

| | | |
|---|-------------------------|-----|
| List of Figures | xii | |
| Preface | xiii | |
| Acknowledgements | xv | |
| Copyright | Acknowledgements | xvi |
| Introduction | 1 | |
| 1 The Economic Approach to Reconstructing the Bible | 11 | |
| 1.1 How to read Old Testament stories in institutional economic terms | 12 | |
| On the textual nature of Old Testament deconstruction | 12 | |
| Incentive structures and the societal contract | 18 | |
| From positive to normative institutional economics:- Analysing and achieving mutual gains | 23 | |
| Interactions over capital contributions and capital distributions | 25 | |
| Dilemma structures and economic man and intervention with the incentive compatibility of the situation | 26 | |
| 1.2 Differences to previous economic and theological research on the Old Testament | 28 | |
| The theological approach jto understanding the Bible | 29 | |
| The religious economic approach to Bible studies | 32 | |
| 1.3 On the permissibility of economic and other scientific research on the Bible | 38 | |
| Economic research on the Bible: Ontological issues or a matter of approach? | 38 | |
| Does economics entertain an unrealistic and dark image of human nature? | 40 | |
| 1.4 Concluding remarks | 42 | |
| 2 The Eden Story and Dilemma Analysis - A Paradise Lost? | 45 | |
| 2.1 The heuristic role of the commons dilemma and the prisoner's dilemma in institutional economic reconstruction | 45 | |

| | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 2.2 | The original sin and a rational fools' dilemma in Paradise | 49 |
| | Capital scarcities and capital contribution issues in Paradise | 50 |
| | Capital scarcities and capital distribution issues in Paradise | 51 |
| | A constitutional economic reading of scarcity problems and interaction conflict in Paradise | 53 |
| | Contested 'good x' and the natural distribution state in the Paradise story | 56 |
| | Rationally foolish interaction outcomes for God and Adam & Eve | 58 |
| | The original sin as analytical driver of Bible stories | 60 |
| 2.3 | The first encounter with 'economic man' in the Paradise story: The portrayal of human nature or methodological fiction? | 63 |
| | On the heuristic purpose of economic man | 64 |
| | Economic man in the Paradise scenario and the snake metaphor | 65 |
| 2.4 | Concluding remarks | 70 |
| 3 | On the Genesis of the Wealth of Nations | 73 |
| 3.1 | Evidence of behavioural economics in the early stories of Genesis: Social ordering in value homogeneous settings | 74 |
| | The early societal contract: Value contracts with God as sovereign | 75 |
| | Behavioural economic ordering in the early stories of Genesis | 78 |
| 3.2 | Towards institutional economic order in Genesis: Capital scarcities, dilemmatic capital exchange, incentive structures and mutual gains | 82 |
| | Scarcities in capital as starting point of biblical storytelling | 82 |
| | A dilemmatic conflict model of capital contributions and capital distributions | 84 |
| | Incentive structures and institutional ordering in the early biblical society | 94 |
| | Wealth of nations (mutual gains) as goal of conflict resolution | 97 |
| | Pluralism as a rising interaction condition in Genesis: Towards an economic societal contract | 99 |
| 3.3 | The prevalence of economic man in Genesis after the Paradise story | 109 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Self-interest, wealth accumulation and wealth creation | 109 |
| Darker shades of self-interest: The behavioural punishment of 'bad', opportunistic behaviour | 111 |
| Biblical characters getting away with opportunistic behaviour? | 113 |
| 3.4 Economic ordering in complex, multicultural settings: Joseph and the Israelites in Egypt | 118 |
| Dilemmatic scarcities as interaction conditions in the Joseph story | 120 |
| Pluralism as an interaction condition in the Joseph story | 121 |
| Egypt's economic policies under Joseph's reign | 123 |
| Joseph: Hero by thesis, Moses: Non-hero by anti-thesis | 128 |
| 3.5 Concluding remarks | 135 |
| 4 On the Exodus of the Wealth of Nations | 140 |
| 4.1 The breakdown of cooperation and rational foolishness as outcome of Moses' and the pharaoh's interactions | 141 |
| The commons dilemma and uncontrolled population growth | 142 |
| Further cooperation dilemmas and unresolved industrial relations problems | 145 |
| A modern parallel of industrial relations problems in an Exodus-like scenario | 148 |
| The failure to intervene with economic institutions in a dilemma structure | 150 |
| Mutual loss as interaction outcome | 154 |
| 4.2 Economic man in the Exodus scenario | 157 |
| Moses and the pharaoh acting like economic men | 157 |
| The snake metaphor in Exodus | 159 |
| 4.3 Prisoners and prosecutor: God's intervention in the Exodus | 161 |
| Cooperation failures driven by God | 161 |
| Godly intervention in Exodus and the failure to master pluralism as interaction condition | 165 |
| 4.4 Concluding remarks | 166 |
| 5 Institutional Ordering after the Exodus | 169 |
| 5.1 Institutional ordering during the Exodus journey | 170 |
| Dilemmatic interest conflicts during the Exodus journey and the Levites' economic man-like, opportunistic acquisition of influence | 170 |
| Incentive structures, biblical laws and new societal contracting | 175 |

| | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| | Economic organization structures for the Exodus journey | 179 |
| | Capital exchange in social interactions | 181 |
| | Mutual gains as interaction outcome | 182 |
| | The loss of pluralism as interaction condition | 183 |
| 5.2 | Institutional ordering after the Exodus journey | 185 |
| | Dilemmatic interest conflicts after the first settlements: | |
| | The 'war of all' breaking out | 186 |
| | Incentive structures in the resettlement phase | 189 |
| | Capital exchange in the resettlement phase | 194 |
| | Mutual gains: Zero-sum and nonzero-sum games after the Exodus journey | 195 |
| | Resettlement crusades, institutional ordering and the instrumental role of economic man | 197 |
| | The loss of pluralism as interaction condition | 199 |
| 5.3 | Concluding remarks | 200 |
| 6 | Economic and Non-Economic Interpretations of God in the Old Testament | 203 |
| 6.1 | God as player contractor: Economic and non-economic societal contracts with humans | 205 |
| | God as value contractor: Loser in the Paradise story | 205 |
| | God as value contractor after the Paradise story: New value contracts with humans | 207 |
| | God's struggle with Jacob: The value contractor losing to economic man | 209 |
| 6.2 | God as rule-maker, interventionist with the moves of the game and source of human capital | 212 |
| | God as interventionist, ruler and value fundamentalist prosecutor | 212 |
| | God as inspirational source of intellectual capital | 215 |
| 6.3 | Abstracting the notion of God for economic principles of social ordering | 217 |
| | God as principle of creative social ordering | 218 |
| | God and the principle of mutuality of gains as interaction outcome | 219 |
| | God as a reflection of the principle of maintaining pluralism as an interaction condition | 221 |
| 6.4 | God as a metaprinciple and reference to the Unexplained in general | I |
| | Unexplained in general | 222 |
| | The idea of God as a solution for everything? | 222 |
| | God as a reference to the Unexplained in general | 224 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Abstracting the restfrage : On the reduction of schisms between religion and the sciences | 225 |
| 6.5 Concluding remarks | 227 |
| 7 Conclusions and After thoughts on the Economic Reconstruction of the Old Testament | 232 |
| 7.1 The Old Testament and economic role models for societal contracting, international relations and nation-building | 234 |
| 7.2 Organization structures, transactions cost efficiencies and environmental conditions | 238 |
| 7.3 The onset of modernity in the Old Testament: Pluralism as interaction condition | 239 |
| 7.4 Encountering dilemma structures and economic man in the Old Testament | 241 |
| 7.5 A brief note on the question of authorship of the Old Testament | 244 |
| 7.6 On the capitalist ethics of the Old Testament: Revisiting the Weber thesis | 245 |
| 7.7 So, is God an economist? | 248 |
| Bibliography | 253 |
| Author Index | 264 |
| Subject Index | 269 |