

Local Partnerships for Better Governance

OECD

ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Table of Contents

Parti

LESSONS FROM THE PARTNERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Introduction	13
First experiments.....	15
Partnerships mainstreamed.....	16
A new area-based management framework.....	16
The impact of decentralisation.....	17
Partnerships: a black box?.....	18
The local governance agenda.....	19
Methodology of the study.....	21
Chapter 1. Governance Contexts and Management Frameworks	25
Why the governance context matters.....	26
Management frameworks.....	32
Chapter 2. Fostering Co-operation	41
Cohesion within sectors.....	41
An interface between institutions.....	45
Unbalanced co-operation.....	51
Informal co-operation.....	53
Towards an integrated approach.....	56
Chapter-3. Designing a Strategy	61
Social development.....	62
Economic development.....	65
Labour market strategies.....	75
Chapter 4. Implementing the Strategy	85
Designing and running activities.....	85
Defining the targets.....	92
Delivering services.....	95
Reforming policy.....	99
Promoting and assisting the use of measures.....	101

Chapter 5. Improving the Effectiveness of Partnerships: Recommendations	107
The contribution of partnerships.....	108
An accountability failure.....	109
Inconsistencies in the national policy framework.....	111
An unreleased capacity to improve governance.....	111
Recommendations: a strategy to improve governance through partnerships.....	113
Summary and Conclusion	123
Partnerships and governance.....	123
New challenges, new potential.....	124
A potential yet to be fulfilled.....	125
Failures and obstacles.....	125
Making partnerships more effective.....	126

Part II

COUNTRY CASE STUDIES

Introductory Note	131
Chapter 6. Innovation in Local Governance: the Irish Partnership Model by van Turok, Department of Urban Studies, University of Glasgow, United Kingdom	135
The development of local partnerships.....	135
The achievements of partnerships.....	151
Conclusions.....	163
Chapter 7. Fighting Unemployment and Social Exclusion with Partnerships in Finland by Michedl 6 Cinneide, Department of Geography, National University of Ireland, Galway	175
Employment, governance and partnerships.....	175
Case studies.....	184
Conclusions.....	205
Chapter 8. A New Approach to Economic Development in Sicily: Planning in Partnership by Klberto Melo, University of Klgarve, Portugal	213
The general institutional framework.....	213
Partnerships in Sicily.....	224
Planning in partnership: first effects and future prospects.....	240
Chapter 9. The Role of Partnerships in Economic Development and Labour Markets in the United States by Randall W. Eberts and George A. Ericcek, W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research, United States	251
Introduction.....	251
Workforce development.....	255
Economic development.....	265

The impact of local partnerships.....	273
Conclusions.....	275
Chapter 10. Partnerships in Austria: Enhancing Regional Co-operation in a Decentralised Policy Framework
by Mícheál Campbell, Policy Research Institute, Leeds Metropolitan University, United Kingdom	281
Employment and partnership development.....	281
Performance assessment.....	289
Enhancing the effectiveness of partnerships.....	299
Annex. 1999 AMS Targets.....	307
Chapter 11. Broadening Social Dialogue: the Experience of the Flemish Region of Belgium
by Sarah Craig, Centre for Social and Educational Research, Dublin Institute of Technology, Ireland.....	309
Overview of the Flemish context.....	309
Sub-regional developments and local partnerships in Flanders.....	316
Conclusions.....	334
Chapter 12. Tripartism, Partnership and Regional Integration of Policies in Denmark
by Michael J. Keane, Department of Economics, National University of Ireland, Galway and Marie Corman, FOREM, Belgium.....	341
Introduction.....	341
Regional and local government in Denmark.....	342
The Danish approach to the labour market.....	344
Support systems for the unemployed.....	346
The activities of regional labour market councils.....	348
Combining tripartism and networking.....	357
Labour market policy and social issues.....	362
Regional and local economic development.....	366
Conclusions.....	369
Annex. Main activation instruments.....	372
Bibliography.....	375
Annex I. Authors' Biographical Notes.....	383
Annex II. Fieldwork Information Details.....	385