Territorial Policy and Governance

Alternative Paths

Edited by Iain Deas and Stephen Hincks

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

List of illustrations xv
List of contributors xvii
Acknowledgements xxi

1 Introduction 1
IAIN DEAS AND STEPHEN HINCKS

PART I
Multi-scalar concepts and practices of regionalism 15

2 New localism, new localities ... 17
MARTIN JONES

3 Evolving conceptions of regional policy in Europe and their influence across different territorial scales 35
PHILIP O'BRIEN, OLIVIER SYKES AND DAVID SHAW

4 Constructing alternative paths to city-region policy and governance 53
JOHN HARRISON

PART II
Flexible regionalism: soft spaces in theory and practice 71

5 Alternative planning spaces 73
GRAHAM HAUGHTON AND PHILIP ALLMENDINGER

6 Multi-level geographies of trans-boundary cooperation in Catalonia: governance, planning and 'cross-border spaces of regionalist engagement' 92
CLAIRE COLOMB, FRANCESC MORATA TIERRA, ANTONI DURÀ GUIMERÀ AND XAVIER OLIVERAS GONZÁLEZ

PART III
Mobility and circularity in urban–regional policy 125

7 Business improvement districts in the United Kingdom: territorialising a 'global' model? 127
KEVIN WARD AND IAN COOK

8 'Where it's at': fashions and fads in British local economic-development policy 147
ALEX LORD

PART IV
Embedding environmental concerns in regional governance and policy 163

9 From ecotopia to heterotopia: alternative pathways to territorialising the environment 165
ANDREW KARVONEN

10 The implications of the low-carbon economy for the politics and practice of regional development 185
DAVID GIBBS, ANDREW E.G. JONAS AND AIDAN WHILE

11 The production and consumption of urban-climatology science in New York City's PlaNYC 204
BRIAN WEBB

12 Conclusion 220
IAIN DEAS AND STEPHEN HINCKS

Index 233