

JEFFREY J. SCHOTT
Editor

Launching New Global Trade Talks: An Action Agenda

INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS
Washington, DC
September 1998

---

---

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
I Introduction
1 The World Trade Organization: Progress to Date and the Road Ahead Jeffrey J. Schott	3
II The New Setting for Global Trade Negotiations
2 The Debate Over Globalization: How to Move Forward by Looking Backward Dani Rodrik	25
3 The International Monetary Scene and the Next WTO Negotiations C. Fred Bergsten	39
4 Regionalism and the Next Round L. Alan Winters	47

III	Preparing for New WTO Negotiations
5	Agricultural Trade Policy: Completing the Reform Timothy Josling	63
6	Setting the Agenda for the Next Round of Negotiations on Trade in Services Geza Feketeekuty	91
7	The Environmental Dilemmas of the World Trade Organization Peter Uimonen	111
8	Intellectual Property Rights in the World Trade Organization: Progress and Prospects Keith E. Maskus	133
IV	Expanding the WTO Agenda
9	Trade and Investment at the WTO: Just Do It! Edward M. Graham	151
10	International Labor Standards and Trade: What Should Be Done? Kimberly Ann Elliott	165
11	The Coming Competition Policy Agenda in the WTO J. David Richardson	179
	Appendices
	Keynote Opening Address Renato Ruggiero	189
	Challenges to the Global Trading System Charlene Barshefsky	195
	Conference Participants	207