

COMPETITION AND OWNERSHIP IN LAND PASSENGER TRANSPORT

Selected Refereed Papers from the 8th International Conference (Thredbo 8),
Rio de Janeiro, September 2003

Edited by

DAVID A. HENSHER

*Executive chair and Co-Founder
The Thredbo Series and
Institute of Transport Studies
The University of Sydney*

2005

ELSEVIER

Amsterdam - Boston - Heidelberg - London - New York - Oxford - Paris
San Diego - San Francisco - Singapore — Sydney - Tokyo

CONTENTS

Foreword David A. Hensher	xiii
Chapter 1. Introduction David A. Hensher	1
Chapter 2. The Road to Rio: A Brief History of the International Conferences on Competition and Ownership in Land Passenger Transport John Preston	7
SECTION 1. WORKSHOP REPORTS	21
Chapter 3. Performance Based Contracts: Theme A David A. Hensher and Erne Houghton	23
Chapter 4. Competition and Regulation: Theme B Chris Nash and Jackie Walters	47
Chapter 5. Regulatory and Planning Tools: Theme C Joaquim Jose Guilhenne de Aragao and Michele Molinari	57
Chapter 6. Institutional Frameworks: Theme D Rosdrio Macdrio and Kjell Jansson	69
Chapter 7. Service Quality and Pricing: Theme E Neil Smith	83
Chapter 8. Performance Data and Measurement: Theme F Didier van de Velde, Jonathon Cowie and Charles Roberts	87
SECTION 2. PERFORMANCE BASED CONTRACTS	101
Chapter 9. Patronage Incentives in Urban Public Transport Contracts - Appraisal of Practice and Experience to Date Ian Wallis	103

Chapter 10. Implementing Performance-Based Quality Contracts in the Bus Sector: Growing Patronage and Post-Transitional Arrangements David A. Hensher and Erne Hpughton	129
Chapter 11. Performance Based Contracts in Public Transportation: The Melbourne Experience John Stanley and David Hensher	155
Chapter 12. Determining Optimal Bus Service Provision: The Role of Quality in the Service Mix John Preston, Biao Huang and Gerard Whelan	177
Chapter 13. Experience with Quality Contracts in Public Transport in Norway Dag Magne Berge, Svein Brathen, Olav Hauge and Frode Ohr	195
Chapter 14. First Experiences with Tendering at the Tactical Level (Service Design) in Dutch Public Transport Erik Pruijmbom and Didier van de Velde	213
SECTION 3. COMPETITION AND REGULATION	239
Chapter 15. Regulatory Policy Developments in the Australasian Urban Public Transport Sector Ian Wallis	241
Chapter 16. Selected Issues in Competition and Ownership in Public Bus Transport Operations in South Africa Jackie Walters	271
Chapter 17. Competition in Dutch Public Transport Guy Hermans and Arjen Stoelinga	291
Chapter 18. Key Factors for Boosting the Bus Transport Market in Medium-Size Towns Jan Owen Jansson	303
Chapter 19. Local Railway Reform in Lombardy: Paving the Way to Competition Ferdinando Stanta	313
Chapter 20. Competition or Complementarity: Regulatory Options for Urban Road Transit in Brazilian Cities Enilson Medeiros dos Santos, Karia Fabiana and Rornulo Dame Orrico Filho	331

Chapter 21. Chinese Railway Reforms at a Crossroads Zhang Rong and Dominique Bouf	343
SECTION 4. REGULATORY AND PLANNING TOOLS	357
Chapter 22. Rail Regulation and Control in Britain—Where Next? Christopher Nash	359
Chapter 23. Knowledge Management and Policy Formulation for Public-Private Partnerships in the Public Transport Sector Joaquim Jose Guilhenne de Aragao and Enilson Medeiros dos Santos	381
Chapter 24. Demand and Supply of Public Transport - The Problem of Cause and Effect Johan Holmgren	405
Chapter 25. Measuring Technical Efficiency in North and South American Railways using a Stochastic Frontier Model: An International Comparison Cesar Rivera-Trujillo	423
Chapter 26. Transit and Paratransit Competition: A Tool for Predicting Passenger Response to Price Competition Hilba Soares Reis and Joaquim Jose Guilhenne de Aragao	443
Chapter 27. Where Does Demand for Public Transport Stand? Andrea Gutierrez	455
SECTION 5. INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORKS	479
Chapter 28. The Evolution of Organisational Forms in European Public Transport During the Last 15 Years' Didier van de Velde	481
Chapter 29. Bus Franchising in Developing Countries: Recent World Bank Experience Kenneth Gwilliam	515
Chapter 30. Recent Evolution in the Bus and Coach Industry and its Economic Fundamentals Stephen Lucas	535

Chapter 31. Institutional Frameworks, Regulatory Agencies and the Land Passenger Transport Industry: Reflections on Recent Evolutions Rosdrío Macdrío	541
Chapter 32. A Functional Model for an Urban Passenger Transport Authority Brendan Finn and John Nelson	559
Chapter 33. Informal Public Transport: The Pioneering Solution of Ribeirão Preto, SP, Brazil—The "Leva e Traz" Project Renato Boarelo	577
Chapter 34. Regionalisation of Passenger Railway Transport: Experiences from France and Italy Laurent Guihery and Claudia Burlando	589
Chapter 35. The Reform of Local Public Transport in Italy: The Roman Case Edoardo Marcucci and Luca Avarello	617
SECTION 6. SERVICE QUALITY AND PRICING	637
Chapter 36. Incentives for the Public Sector to Provide Commuter Transport Services: A Look into Helsinki MA Commuting Marko Nokkala and Marja Rosenberg	639
Chapter 37. Suggestions for the Improvement of the Quality of Services of Collective Transportation Patricia Duarte and Daniel Ignacio de Souza Junior	649
Chapter 38. Transport Service Quality and Social Responsibility <sup>1</sup> through Relationship Marketing Jorge Antonio Martins and Milena Bodiner	659
SECTION 7. PERFORMANCE DATA AND MEASUREMENT	679
Chapter 39. Is the Current Ownership Structure of the British Bus Industry Capable of Meeting Public Policy Objectives? Charles Roberts	681
Chapter 40. Performance Data and Measurement: Outcomes and Trends from Brazilian Railway Privatisation Hostilio Xavier Ratton Neto	697

Chapter 41.

Performance Indicators in Urban Transport: The Texas Governor's Business Council Process
Wendell Cox 709

Chapter 42.

Technical Efficiency versus Technical Change - The British Passenger Train Operators
Jonathon Cowie 739

Chapter 43.

Bidding Procedure in Brazilian Urban Bus Systems: The Case of Belo Horizonte
Alexandre de Avila Gomide 765