

CRIMES &
PUNISHMENTS?

RETALIATION UNDER THE WTO

ROBERT Z. LAWRENCE

INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS

Washington, DC

October 2003

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
1 Introduction	1
Flawed System?	4
Plan of the Book	7
2 Role of Remedies in the WTO System	13
Preconditions	14
The Reciprocity Paradigm	19
WTO Dispute Settlement Remedies: A Deconstruction	30
Agreement and Enforcement: Interdependent Arrangements	44
Conclusion	46
3 Practice Makes Imperfect	49
Perceptions	49
Circumstances	50
Discretion	50
Measurement Problems	52
Divergent Opportunity Cost	52
Divergent Political Impact	53
Legal Interpretations: The Exception that Proves the Rule	54
4 Imperfect Practice in the US-EU Trading Relationship	61
Robert Z. Lawrence and Nathaniel Stankard
The Only Game in Town	62
Agriculture	66

Health Standards	71
Steel	73
Tax Policy	74
Conclusions	76
5 Options for Change	79
Eliminate Rebalancing	79
Allow Only Compensatory Liberalization	80
Enhance Penalties	81
Fines	84
Preauthorized Compensation: Contingent Liberalization Commitments	86
6 Concluding Comments	91
Protection	91
Compliance	92
Sovereignty	93
Equity	95
Final Observations	96
References	99
Index	103
Boxes
Box 2.1 Settling disputes	27
Box 2.2 Prisoner's dilemma in trade negotiations	34