

PUBLIC RELATIONS PRACTICES

Case Studies and Problems
Fifth Edition'

PATRICK JACKSON, Fellow PRSA

*Editor, pr reporter
Senior Counsel, Jackson Jackson & Wagner
Former Adjunct Faculty, Boston University*

ALLEN H. CENTER, Fellow PRSA

*Former Resident Lecturer
San Diego State University
Former Vice President, Motorola, Inc.*

Contents

PREFACE, INCLUDING THE PRSA CODE OF PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS	XIII
CHAPTER 1 THE PURPOSES OF PUBLIC RELATIONS	1
Problem 1: Breaking in an Employer	9
CHAPTER 2 HOW PUBLIC RELATIONS DEALS WITH PROBLEMS AND OPPORTUNITIES	12
Problem 2: Putting the PR Process to Work	32
CHAPTER 3 EMPLOYEE RELATIONS	35
Cases:
3-1 AIDS in the Workplace . . . Major employer adjusts to reality and initiates a program.	43
3-2 Employee Satisfaction Leads to Customer Satisfaction . . . How organizations use internal programs to listen to employees.	52

	3-3	Sohio's Monster Moving Day . . . Including layoffs, a new CEO, and a corporate name change all at once.	57
	3-4	Motorola's Quest for Quality . . . The quality movement and public relations' role in it.
	3-5	Where Profit Comes First: A New Management Style? . . . When making a profit comes before employee relations.	70
		Problem 3:
		What Price "Good" Employee Relations?	79
CHAPTER 4		COMMUNITY RELATIONS	81
		Cases:
	4-1	A Continental Community Relations Challenge Toronto Dominion Bank . . . Developing a program for a large, Canadian bank that branches could implement.	67
	4-2	Chemical Industry Takes Responsibility for Community Concerns . . . Chemical Manufacturers Association creates a program for continuous improvement by the chemical industry.	93
	4-3	Medical Service Provides Community Service ... Putting volunteers on the phone with health information.	102
	4-4	The Struggle for Nuclear Power . . . Nuclear power plant gains acceptance through proactive community relations:	113
	4-5	Nuclear Waste Goes Down the Drain . . . Trying to gain support when faced with community outrage and grassroots opposition.	120
	4-6	Volunteer Programs Improve the Quality of Life . . . Employees are the most persuasive medium.	134
		Problems:
	4A	Helping Isn't Easy	145
	4B	Adjusting to a Change in Command	145
CHAPTER 5		INVESTOR RELATIONS	147
		Cases:
	5-1	A Classic: On Wall Street, Inside Information Is Profitable ... A news release puts public relations on the spot and then in the boardroom.	154

5-2	A Classic: Nader Takes on General Motors ... A David challenges the policies of a corporate Goliath.	167
5-3	A City Divided: SDG&E Takeover . . . San Diego challenges the merger of a major utility.	182
5-4	The Seamless Web: How Relations with Other Publics Affects Investor Relations ... A company solves its investor problems by targeting other publics.	188
Problems:
5-A	Can an Annual Report Please, Everyone?	195
5-B	Here Comes That Man Nader, Again	196

CHAPTER 6 CONSUMER RELATIONS 192

Cases:

6-1	The Changing Kingdom of Coors . . . Attitudes and methods change as family-owned brewer competes in widening arena.	204
6-2	The Hamburger Wars . . . Fast-food chains battle in ads and publicity, and customers foot the bill.	217
6-3	A Classic: Tylenol Rides It Out and Gains a Legacy . . . Creating a role model for turning adversity into ultimate gain.	226
6-4	Putting on a New Face . . . Goodwill Industries sheds its throwaway clothing image for fashion appeal.,	235
6-5	Customer Satisfaction: How Wal-Mart and L. L. Bean have Translated it from Buzzword to Behavior . . . Two companies put customers first.	245

Problems:

6-A	Wine bar Needs Positioning	253
6-B	Goods Intentions, Bad Results	253

CHAPTER 7 MEDIA RELATIONS 256

Cases:

7-1	NASSP: News Media as a Feedback Source . . . School principals serve as volunteers to get first-hand knowledge of problems in the nation's schools.	263
7-2	Alar & PR: Getting to the Core of the Apple Problem . . . Media blitz attempts to change public opinion about apples.	269

7-3	Nightmare in Newfoundland . . . When chartered aircraft crashes with U.S. troops aboard and news media seek information.	280
7-4	The Lights Go Back On at an Electric Utility What can happen when key publics feel abused.	291
7-5	A Classic: Building Media Relationships that Pay . . . Chrysler's response to Consumer Reports reviews of the Omni/Horizon automobiles.	302
	Problems:
7-A	Employer Interests and Media Interests in Conflict	310
7-B	Dealing with the Media in a Sticky Situation	312

CHAPTER 8	PUBLIC ISSUES AND CONCERNS, PRIVATE INTERESTS AND CAMPAIGNS	314
	Cases:
8-1	Values on a Collision Course . . . An owl becomes the symbol in the struggle over timbering in the national forests.	324
8-2	Reproductive Rights and the Abortion Issue . . . The fight between birth control and right-to-life goes on while world population growth grows afa breakneck pace. *	333
8-3	Take Your Choice: Tobacco or Health . . . Arguments and tactics on both sides of the issue.	348
8-4	Guns—For Whom? For What? . . . Public relations techniques work harder for NRA and gun control coalition as crime rates rise.	361
8-5	The Colossal Effort to Advance Beyond War . . . Working to abolish war by strength of conviction not strength of arms.	375
8-6	Building Support for the Centerpiece of Democracy . . . Rallying a public education constituency around a flying banner.	389
8-7	Free the Texas Shopper! . . . Convincing people that there are other good places to go on Sunday in addition to church.	398
8-8	Mothers Against Drunk Driving—MADD MADD's efforts to rally support against drunk driving.	403

	8-9 Whose Right to Know What?: AIDS and Condoms in Schools . . . School board and community confront the dilemma of condom distribution and AIDS education.	412
	Problems:
	8-A Smokeout Can Be Hot Potato	413
	8-B Refereeing a New Kind of Game	419
CHAPTER 9	CRISIS MANAGEMENT	422
	Cases:
	9-1 Beer and Cookies: Rumor and Reality . . . Product tampering scares, in copy-cat fashion after Tylenol, hit other companies.	427
	9-2 Bhopal and Valdez: Corporate Crises of Epic Proportions . . . A review of these cases and how the organizations involved responded.	434
	9-3 Building Grassroots Support to Avoid Bankruptcy . . . Statewide workforce rallies support for beleaguered power company.	448
	9-4 Established Relationships Save a Landmark Company . . . Rallying support to ward off unwanted takeover.	455
	9-5 Whose Rights Are They? . . . A university^ responds to a surprise attack by animal rights activists,.	466
	Problem 9:
	When Associates Disagree in Handling an Emergency	474
CHAPTER 10	STANDARDS, ETHICS, AND VALUES	476
	Cases:
	10-1 Fund-Raising—A Question of Trust . . . Inspiring donations again after the ethics and integrity of a nonprofit organization are in question.	434
	10-2 A Classic: Baby Formula Raises Questions . . . Nestle and Bristol-Myers confront ethical problems in marketing to underdeveloped areas.	493
	10-3 Ethics Woven into the Decision-Making Process . . . Major defense contractor binds all employees to a code of ethics and standards of conduct.	505

10-4 Disarming the Critics and Making Friends . . .
Public relations at Dow Chemical renders educational service to journalism and public relations in academia.	518*
10-5 Breast Implants and Dow Corning: Dealing with the Perception of Deception . . .
Dealing with public perception about the risks of a product.	526
10-6 Political Correctness: Is It Just a Polite Way to Restrict Freedom of Speech? . . .
An examination of an incident at Dartmouth and other examples.	535
10-7 The Mammography Issue: The Effect of a Triggering Event . . .
Mammography issue escalates the public fear of breast cancer and questions the validity of mammograms.	541
 Problem 10: Whether to Blow the Whistle	 551
 CHAPTER 11 CAREER PREPARATION	 553
 INDEX	 565