

Critical Issues in Tourism:

a geographical perspective

Second Edition

Gareth Shaw and Allan M. Williams

BLACKWELL

Publish

Contents

List of Tables	viii
List of Boxes	xi
List of Figures	xiii
List of Plates	xv
Preface to the Second Edition	xvi
PART I An Approach to Tourism	I
1 Introduction	3
Tourism, Leisure, and Mobility: Definitions and Relationships	3
Tourism and Leisure: Economy, Society, and Culture	11
Production and Consumption: An Approach to Critical Issues	22
2 The International Dimension	26
Tourism and Globalization	26
Tourism and Leisure: Internationalization and Globalization	28
The Globalization of Business and Business Tourism	35
Tourism and the Less Developed Countries	42
PART II Access to Tourism Consumption	49
3 Social Access to Tourism and Leisure	51
Socio-economic Change and Leisure Development	51
New Forms of Tourism Consumption	55
Inequalities in Tourism and Leisure Access	58

Leisure Patterns and Constraints on Leisure Participation	63
The Disadvantaged Tourist	69
Improving Access to Leisure and Tourism: The Role of the State	71
4 Tourist Motivation and Behavior	76
In Search of the Tourist	76
Tourists and Tourist Images	84
Tourist Motivation and Decision-making	85
Tourist Behavior: At the Scene of their Dreams	91
Hosts and Guests: Perspectives on Tourist Cultures	95
The Sociocultural Impact of Tourists	99
PART III The Production of Tourism Services	109
5 The Tourism and Leisure Industries	111
The Tourism and Leisure Complex	111
Commodification, Spatial Fixity, and Temporality	113
A Question of Scale: Company Structures	116
Internationalization and Transnational Corporations	121
Packaging Paradise: The International Tour Companies	127
State Intervention, Government, and Governance	132
The Tourism Industry and International Trade	137
6 Tourism and Entrepreneurship	145
Tourism, Economic Development, and Entrepreneurial Activity: A Neglected Issue	145
The Role of Entrepreneurship in Tourism Development	151
The Nature and Characteristics of Tourism Entrepreneurs	159
7 Tourism Employment and Labor Markets	165
Employment in Tourism and Leisure	165
Labor-force Composition: Flexibility and Internal-External Labor Markets	171
The Social Construction of Labor Markets: Gender and Flexibility	180
Migration, Labor Market Segmentation, and Informal Labor Markets	181

PART IV Tourism Environments	189
8 Tourism and Leisure Environments	191
Typologies of Tourism and Leisure Environments	191
Resort Cycles and Changes in Tourism Environments	198
The Falsification of Place and Time in Leisure Environments	202
Theming the Landscape	207
9 Mass Tourism	211
The Origins of Mass Tourism and Leisure	211
Mass Tourism as a Form of Mass Consumption	218
Mass Tourism: Contrasting Case Studies	226
Changes in Tourism and Leisure: The End of Mass Tourism?	239
10 Urban Tourism	244
The Dimensions of Urban Tourism and Leisure	244
The Tourist in the City	251
Tourism, Urban Regeneration, and Place Marketing	256
Hallmark Events and the City as Spectacle	264
Selling the City: Who Benefits?	268
11 Rural Tourism	273
Tourism, Leisure, and Rural Areas	273
The Changing Social Construction of Rural Tourism and Recreation	277
Trouble in Paradise: Competition and Conflict in Rural Tourism	283
Rural Economies and Restructuring: The Roles of Rural and Farm Tourism	289
12 Tourism and the Environment: The Challenge of Sustainable Tourism	296
Tourism and Environment Relationships	296
The Sustainable Tourism Paradigm	300
The Environmental Impact of Tourism	304
Managing the Tourism Environment: Applying the Principles of Sustainable Tourism	310
Sustainable Tourism and the Role of the State	318
Tourism Internet Resources and Key Websites	321
Recommended Reading	326
Bibliography	330
Index	367