

Islamic Finance

Innovation and Growth

Edited by

Simon Archer and Rifaat Ahmed Abdel Karim

Published by

Euromoney Books and AAOIFI

In association with

Al Rajhi Banking & Investment Corp
Al-Tawfeek Company for Investment Funds Ltd
Dubai Islamic Bank
First Islamic Investment Bank E.C.
Gulf Finance House
Parsoli UK Ltd

Shari'a Editorial Board

Judge Muhammed Taqi Usmani
Dr. Ahmed Ali Abdallah
Nizam Yaguby

■ Contents

Part I: Fundamentals of Islamic finance and the development of Islamic financial institutions 1

1 introduction to Islamic finance 3

Simon Archer and Rifaat Ahmed Abdel Karim

Essential features of Islamic finance 3

The development of Islamic financial institutions 3

Corporate governance, regulatory, legal and accounting issues 5

Types of financial services offered by Islamic banks and investment funds 5

Liquidity and risk management in Islamic banks 6

The future: innovation and growth 6

2 The religious foundations of Islamic finance 9

Yusuf Talal DeLorenzo

Overview 9

Scriptural and theological foundations 10

The foundations of *S/ian'*a-compliant business and investing 11

The nature of *S/iar/'*a-compliant business 13

Riba and morality 15

Prohibiting interest 16

Banking without interest 18

Financing and debt 20

Gharar 22

| | |
|---|----|
| Risk | 23 |
| Contracts | 24 |
| Islamic law and the future of Islamic finance | 26 |

3 The evolution of the Islamic financial system 29

Professor Rodney Wilson

Introduction 29

Traditional Islamic financing 29

• The Islamic Development Bank and Islamic finance 30

• The spread of commercial Islamic banking 31 ~$

The contribution of Islamic scholars to financial innovation 32

Islamic financial engineering and diversification 32

Widening the range of products to compete successfully 33

The pioneering Malaysian market 35

The development of Islamic securities markets 35

 The success of the Bahrain market 37

Establishment of national Islamic banking systems 37

Islamic finance in Pakistan 38

Islamic banking in Sudan 40

The future of Islamic banking 41

4 The development of Islamic financial institutions and future challenges 42

Zamir Iqbal and Abbas Mirakhor

Introduction 42

Forms of Islamic financial institutions 43

 Islamic banks 43

 Islamic windows 46

 Islamic investment banks and funds 47

 Islamic mortgage companies 48

 Islamic insurance (takafut) companies 49

Mudaraba companies 50

 International Islamic financial market (IIFM) 51

IFIs and multilateral institutions 52

 Islamic Development Bank (IDB) 52

 Bretton Woods institutions (IMF/WB/IFC) 53

 Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions (AAOIFI) 56

 Islamic Financial Services Board (IFSB) 57

Issues and challenges facing IFIs 57

Financial innovation 57

Risk management 59

Governance 59

Part II: Corporate governance, regulatory, legal and accounting issues 65

5 Regulatory issues in Islamic finance 67

Michael Clode

Introduction 67

Banking supervision 68

Prudential considerations and capital adequacy 68

Liquidity management 69

Insider dealing 69

Risks specific to Islamic banks 69

Accounting and auditing 70

Shari'a issues 71

Corporate governance 72

Do the regulators wield enough power? 73

6 The Shari'a supervisory board and issues of Shari'a rulings and their harmonisation Islamic banking and finance 74

Mohd Daud Bakar

Introduction 74

Islamic banks and the Shari'a supervisory board 75

Appointment and composition of the Shari'a supervisory board 78

The Shari'a decision-making process and the status of decisions 80

Interpretation of Shari'a (ijtihad) 82

Prospects for standardisation 86

Conclusion 88

7 Legal aspects of Islamic finance 90

Mahmoud Fadeel

Introduction 90

Islamic finance instruments: structure, comparison, profit extraction and amortisation

Murabaha 92

Mudaraba 98

Ijarah muntahia bittamleek 99

Tax considerations and codes 102

The US tax system from a foreign investor's perspective 102

Legal reflections 104

Concluding remarks 107

8 Accounting issues for Islamic banks 109

Taha Eltayeb Ahmed

Introduction 109

Internal self-regulation 111

External self-regulation 113

Financial statements 116

Asset valuation 117

Income recognition 117

Allocation of profits 118

Provisions and reserves 119

Zakah 120

Implications of Islamic accounting standards 121

Conclusions 123

Part III: Financial services and investment funds 127

9 Retail and private client services 129

Stella Cox

The contemporary Islamic banking industry 129

Retail saving and investment products 130

Consumer finance 131

Retail financial services in Asia 132

Asset management products 133

Islamic retail financial services in Western jurisdictions 134

| | |
|---|-----|
| Regulation of Islamic retail financial services | 135 |
| Private client investment services | 137 |
| Diversifying a private client portfolio | 137 |
| Asset management product distribution | 140 |
| Disclosure, reporting and client support | 140 |
| Summary | 141 |

10 Project finance 143

Syed Tariq Husain

| | |
|--|-----|
| Definition and background | 143 |
| Assets and liabilities mismatch or liquidity risk | 143 |
| In-house capabilities to undertake project finance | 144 |
| Willingness and capabilities of conventional banks to undertake project finance risk | |
| Securitisation | 144 |
| Development of project finance capabilities | 144 |
| Reduced global income levels | 145 |
| Post-September 11, 2001 | 145 |
| Enormous demand for project financing | 145 |
| Applicable structure using Islamic financing techniques | 145 |
| Significant uses of Islamic funding in project finance | 146 |
| The future of Islamic finance | 149 |

11 Islamic equity investment 151

Mohamed A Elgari

| | |
|---|-------|
| Shari'a law and its place in the life of a Muslim | 151 / |
| The Islamic equity investment criteria | 153 |
| a) Business of the company | 153 |
| b) Total outstanding debt does not exceed 33 per cent | 153 |
| c) Cash and interest-bearing securities do not exceed 33 per cent | 154 |
| d) Receivables and cash are less than 50 per cent | 154 |
| e) Prohibition of financial instruments | 155 |
| The process of purification | 156 |
| Meaning of purification | 156 |
| Shari'a basis for purification | 156 |
| What is to be purified? | 157 |
| Net or gross | 158 |
| Purification versus screening | 158 |
| Deduct or inform | 158 |
| Glossary of terms for Islamic equity investment criteria | 159 |

Part IV: Liquidity and risk management 161

12 Liquidity management and trade financing 163

Youssef Shaheed Maroun

Introduction 163

Historical background 163

Distinction of Islamic banking 164

Why trade financing? 165

Secured commodity murabaha 166

Short-term trade financing 167

Liquidity management in Islamic banking 167

The need for Islamic interbank and financial markets 169

Developing acceptable Islamic financial instruments 170

Current solution to the challenges above 171

Secured commodity murabaha 171

Mudaraba sukuk 171

Salam sukuk 172

Islamic leasing sukuk 172

Islamic Development sukuk 173

Musharaka sukuk 174

Securitisation 174

Conclusion 175

13 Risk management in Islamic banks 176

Dr Kenneth Baldwin

Introduction 176

Risk sharing and risk aversion 176

Risk profile of Islamic institutions 178

Liquidity 179

Credit risk 179

Market risks 180

Quantifying the risk in complex Islamic finance contracts 180

Duration 181

Convexity 181

Embedded options 182

"Variable" profit rate considerations 183

The roles of conventional and Islamic institutions in product development

Derivative products in Islamic finance 186

Salam 186

| | |
|--|-----|
| Urboun | 187 |
| Khiyar al-shart | 188 |
| Profit rate swap | 188 |
| Hedging techniques and tools | 190 |
| Misconceptions | 190 |
| Managing interest rate risks | 192 |
| Secondary derivatives markets | 195 |
| Depth and liquidity | 195 |
| Securitisation | 195 |
| Future developments in risk management | 196 |
| Appendix I | 197 |
| Appendix II | 198 |
| Appendix III | 199 |
| Appendix IV | 200 |

14 Securitisation and its application in Islamic finance 202

| | |
|--|-----|
| Introduction | 202 |
| Credit ratings and credit enhancement | 203 |
| Examples of Shar'ah-compliant securitisation | 204 |
| Securitisation of real estate assets | 205 |
| An Islamic alternative to CMBS or RMBS | 205 |
| Structuring the securitisation notes | 206 |
| Objectives of the structure and Shar'ah constraints | 206 |
| Towards a Shar'ah-compliant structure | 206 |
| An illustrative structure | 207 |
| Further considerations and differences from conventional securitisations | 208 |

Part V: Appendices and glossary 211

| | | |
|-------------|--|-----|
| Appendix A: | Islamic financial institutions by country | 213 |
| Appendix B: | Conventional banks offering Islamic financial services including "Islamic windows" | 217 |
| Glossary | | 219 |

The co-publishers 225