

Periy

EVENING CHATS

INjBEIf1N©

^^robinQ

1 i

u__s^' rredicamefii |

W • W • Norton & Company

C

New York London

CONTENTS'

FOREWORD by Liu Binyan xi

INTRODUCTION 3

One SOCIAL WORLD 51
Corruption 52
The Work-Unit System 61
Money First, Education Last 70
Repression 79

Two LIVELIHOOD, 90
Daily Life 91
Financial Squeeze 94
Housing Pinch 97
Morale 107
Public Incivility 112
No Way Out 118

Three HISTORY 123
May Fourth 128
"Peasant Consciousness" 135

The Campaigns of the 1950s	139
The Revelations of Dai Qing	144
The Cultural Revolution	149
The Reforms of the 1980s	J 55
The Course of Twentieth-Century Chinese History	159
Historical Parallels	J 63
The Problem of Pessimism	167	»
Four IDENTITY: LANGUAGE AND IDEOLOGY		J 73
Living with the Official Language	J 75
The Search for an Ideology	191
Patriotism	201
Five IDENTITY WITHIN GROUPS	2 J 3
Identity with the State	214
Identity with Other Groups	229
Individualism	235
Four Generations	237
The Returned Student	244
Six RESPONSIBILITY	249
The Worrying Mentality	249
The Responsibility of Expression: Two Traps	255
The Problem of "Knowledge for Use"	266
New Definitions of Responsibility	273
Advancing Democracy	278
The Debate over New Authoritarianism	283
AFTERWORD	29	J
INDEX	309	