

NOT LIKE US

*How Europeans Have Loved, Hated, and Transformed
American Culture
Since World War II*

RICHARD PELLIS

BASIC
B
BOOKS

A Member of the Perseus Books Group

Contents

Preface xi

-CHAPTER ONE-

Cultural Relations Before 1945

1

The New World and the Old	2
The American Impact on Europe in the Early Twentieth Century	7
American Foundations and European Refugees	22
The Origins of America's Cultural Diplomacy	31

CHAPTER TWO-

American Culture and the Cold War: The Reshaping of Western Europe

37

The Reformation of Germany	40
Europe's Response to the Marshall Plan	52
The Birth of the Fulbright Program	58

•CHAPTER THREE-

Truth, Propaganda, and Cultural Combat: The Contest with the Soviet Union

64

The Congress for Cultural Freedom	66
Modernism and McCarthyism	76
USIA in the 1950s	82
Edward R. Murrow and JFK	86
Charles Frankel and LBJ	91

---

 CHAPTER FOUR-
American Studies in Europe

Prewar Antecedents	95
The Postwar Setting	102
The American Guest Professors	105
The European Americanists:
The First Generation	111
American Studies in the 1950s	118
Expansion and Contraction:
From the 1960s to the 1980s	123
The Europeanization of American Studies	129

*Transatlantic Misunderstandings:
American Views of Europe*

Tourists and Temporary Residents	135
American Writers in Postwar Europe	139
Mary McCarthy's Italy	141
Students, Professors, and the Rediscovery of America	146

---

 CHAPTER SIX—

Transatlantic Misunderstandings: European Views of America

152

The Anti-Americans	156
New York to Los Angeles:
Impressions of a Continent	163
The Open Society	168
The Underside of America	172
Commerce and Culture	177
Politics and Diplomacy, American-Style	182

•CHAPTER SEVEN-

The Americanization of Europe's Economic and Social Life

188

The Economic Invasion	189
European Reactions to the American Challenge	191
Mass Consumption and the New Middle Class	195
The War Against Coca-Cola	199
The Menace of Modernity	201

---

—CHAPTER EIGHT—

Mass Culture: The American Transmission

204

The Export of News and Entertainment	205
Hollywood, Washington, and Postwar Europe	212
The Rebirth of the European Cinema	220
The Age of the Blockbuster:
American Films at the End of the Century	225
From Bonanza to Baywatch :
American Television in Europe	230

-CHAPTER NINE-

Mass Culture: The European Reception

<sup>2</sup>35

Mass Culture and the European Intelligentsia	236
The Revolt of the Young	239
The Uses of American Literature	243
From Hollywood to the New Wave:
French Critics and American Movies	253
Dallas in Holland	258

-CHAPTER TEN-

*From Gaullism to GATT:
Resisting America in the 1980s and 1990s*

263

The Consequences of Cultural Imperialism	264
Language and National Identity	270
Protectionism, Free Trade, and the Mass Media	273

---

CHAPTER-ELEVEN-

The Europeanization of American Culture

, 278

The Limits of America's Influence	279
The Transatlantic Counterculture	283
Going Native: The Adaptation of American Products to European Tastes	291
Big Macs on the Spanish Steps	302
Disneyland in Paris	306
The European Impact on America in the Late Twentieth Century	313

CHAPTER TWELVE-

The Globalization of Western Culture

325

Mergers and Multinationals	326
The Decline of Diversity	329
International Culture and Cultural Nationalism	330
Notes	335
Bibliography	416
Index	427