

In Search of European Excellence

THE 10 KEY STRATEGIES OF EUROPE'S TOP COMPANIES

Robert Heller

HarperCollinsBusiness
An Imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	ix
INTRODUCTION	xii
1. The Devolution of Leadership
The making of ABB	1
Down the organization	4
The shared strategies of ICL	9
Breaking the rules	12
The salvation of SGS-THOMSON	17
Motivating the motivators	20
2. Driving Radical Change
The dwindling of the giants	26
Management's leading powers	29
The hollowness of Marks & Spencer	35
The virtues of virtual corporations	38
The new need of Volkswagen	45
Sharing the responsibilities	47
3. Reshaping the Culture
The roots of LucasVarity	53
Rewards of reinvention	56
The défi of Digital Europe	61
Leaders of leaders	64
The division at Daimler	70
From leanness to prowess	73
4. Dividing to Rule
The boom of the breakaways	80
Formula for freedom	83
The Adidas mind-set	88
Taking it from the top	91
The zip at Zeneca	96
Parents and children	100

5. Exploiting the Organization
The new power at Unilever	106
How management adds value	109
The fumbling of Philips	116
Fixing the framework	119
The culture changers of Europe	125
Progress through processes	128
6. Keeping the Competitive Edge
The Europeans from Japan	134
Management East-West style	137
The clues to Club Med	143
Dancing to the customer's tune	145
The alliances of PixTech	151
Partnering for profit	154
7. Achieving Constant Renewal
The luxury of Hoffman-La Roche	161
The rewards of risk	163
The gap at Siemens	170
Developing prime products	172
The corrected blunder of BP	178
Dynamizing the system	181
8. Mobilizing the Motivators
The bubble-up at Opel	187
Confounding the corporacy	189
The break-out of British Steel	195
Closing the management gap	198
The megamergers of Europe	204
Acquisitions of advantage	206
9. Making Teamworking Work
The super-quirks of Quinn	213
Power to the empowered	215
The knock-on at Nokia	221
Managing the creators	224

The happy teams at Heineken	229
Virtuous circle companies	232

10. Total Quality of Management

The way to get it right	237
What management quality means	239
The birthright of Bosch	245
Deploying the policies	248
The shake-up at Shell	254
Reinventing the manager	258

NOTES	265
-------	-----

INDEX	269
-------	-----