

Economics of College Sports

EDITED BY JOHN FIZEL AND RODNEY FORT

Studies in Sports Economics

Westport, Connecticut
London

Contents

Part I: Introduction	1
1. Economics of College Sports: An Overview John Fizel and Rodney Fort	3
Part II: Structure of College Sports and the University Mission	9
2. The 1997 Restructuring of the NCAA: A Transactions Cost Explanation Joel G. Maxcy	11
3. The Impact on Higher Education of Corruption in Big-Time College Sports Paul D. Staudohar and Barry Zepel	35
4. Motivating College Athletics Evan Osborne	51
Part III: Financial Returns to College Sports	63
5. Effects of University Athletics on the University: A Review and Extension of Empirical Assessment Brian Goff	65
6. Why Do U.S. Colleges Have Sports Programs? Robert Sandy and Peter Shane	87

7. An Economic Slam Dunk or March Madness? Assessing the Economic Impact of the NCAA Basketball Tournament Robert A. Baade and Victor A. Matheson	111
Part IV: Labor Issues in College Sports	135
8. College Football and Title IX Michael A. Leeds, Telen Suris, and Jennifer Durkin	137
9. Measuring Marginal Revenue Product in College Athletics: Updated Estimates Robert W. Brown and R. Todd Jewell	153
10. Participation in Collegiate Athletics and Academic Performance John Fizek and Timothy Smaby	163
11. Managerial Efficiency, Managerial Succession, and Organizational Performance John Fizek and Michael P. Dmitri	175
Part V: Competitive Balance in College Sports	195
12. Institutional Change in the NCAA and Competitive Balance in Intercollegiate Football Craig A. Depken II and Dennis P. Wilson	197
13. Is There a Short Supply of Tall People in the College Game? David J. Berri	211
14. The Impact of Cartel Enforcement in NCAA Division I-A Football Craig A. Depken II and Dennis P. Wilson	225
Bibliography	245
Index	255
About the Editors and Contributors	259