The Edinburgh Companion to Contemporary Narrative Theories

Edited by Zara Dinnen and Robyn Warhol
CONTENTS

List of Illustrations viii
Acknowledgements x
Notes on Contributors xi

Introduction 1
Zara Dinnen and Robyn Warhol

I. Mind-Centred and Cognitive Approaches to Narrative

1. What Does It Mean to Be Mad? Diagnosis, Narrative, Science, and the DSM 17
   H. Porter Abbott

2. The Nonhuman in Mind: Narrative Challenges to Folk Psychology 30
   Marco Caracciolo

3. Narrative and the Embodied Reader 43
   Suzanne Keen

4. The Fully Extended Mind 56
   Karin Kukkonen

5. Sense-Making and Wonder: An Enactive Approach to Narrative Form in Speculative Fiction 67
   Merja Polvinen

II. Situated Narrative Theories

6. Cosmopolitanism, Controversy, and Collectivity: Zadie Smith's Networked Narration 83
   Claudia Breger

7. Race and Empathy in GB Tran's Vietnamerica 99
   Sue J. Kim

8. Till Death Do Us Part: Embodying Narratology 117
   Susan S. Lanser
9. Digital Intimacies and Queer Narratives
   Sam McBean
   132

10. The Cinema of the Impossible: Queer Theory and Narrative
   Valerie Roby
   145

III. Theories of Digital Narrative

11. Cinema and the Unnarratability of Computation
   Zara Dinnen
   159

12. Plotting the Loop: Videogames and Narratability
   Rob Gallagher
   174

13. Serial as Digital Constellation: Fluid Textuality and Semiotic Otherness in the Podcast Narrative
   Ellen McCracken
   187

14. UI Time and the Digital Event
   Daniel Punday
   202

IV. Theories of Television, Film, Comics, and Graphic Narrative

15. Continued Comics: The New ‘Blake and Mortimer’ as an Example of Continuation in European Series
   Jan Baetens and Hugo Frey
   215

16. Operational Seriality and the Operation of Seriality
   Jason Mittell
   227

17. Closer Than They Seem: Graphic Narrative and the Senses
   Katalin Orbán
   239

18. Episode Five, or, When Does a Narrative Become What It Is?
   Sean O’Sullivan
   256

19. Media Theory as Narrative Theory: Film Narration as a Case Study
   Christian Quendler
   273

V. Anti-Mimetic Narrative Theories

20. Digital Fiction and Unnatural Narrative
   Alice Bell and Astrid Ensslin
   291

   Stefan Kjerkegaard
   305

22. Speculative Fiction, or, Literal Narratology
   Brian McHale
   317

23. Unnatural Endings in Fiction and Drama
   Brian Richardson
   332
VI. Philosophical Approaches to Narrative

24. Narrative and the Necessity of Contingency
   Mark Currie
   349

25. Local Nonfictionality within Generic Fiction: Huntington's Disease in McEwan's Saturday and Genova's Inside the O'Brien's
   James Phelan
   362

26. The Story of the Law
   Ruth Ronen
   375

27. The Centre for Narrative Gravity: Narrative and the Philosophy of Selfhood after Dennett
   Richard Walsh
   389

28. The Body as Medium: A Phenomenological Approach to the Production of Affect in Narrative
   Amy Shuman and Katharine Young
   399

Index
   417