

Paul Streeten

Globalisation

Threat or Opportunity?

Copenhagen Business School Press
HANDELSHØJSKOLENS FORLAG

Table of contents

1. Introduction.....	7
2. Integration and interdependence.....	I 1
3. Uneven benefits and costs of globalisation.....	27
4. Unemployment.....	35
5. Globalisation and income distribution.....	45
6. The poor and globalisation.....	57
7. Government and open economies.....?	61
8. Technology and institutions.....	65
9. Technology and the international location of industry.....	71
10. Improving international institutions and the need for institutional innovation.....	75
11. The case for being Utopian.....	79
12. The role of micro-enterprises.....	83
13. Global financial flows.....	101
14. International migration and brain drain.....	105
15. East Asia versus the rest of the South.....	109
16. Global governance.....	115
17. Global social capital.....	121
18. Globalisation and international cooperation.....	129
19. Human Adjustment Assistance and Social Conditionally.....	133
20. Aid and public opinion.....	139
21. Competitiveness.....	143

22. The case for a quieter life.....	149
23. Regional blocs: building or tumbling blocks to globalisation?....	153
24. The role of conflict.....	157
25. Implications for thought and practice.....	161
26. Definitions of globalisation.....	167
References.....	175
Index of Names.....	185
Index of Subjects.....	189