

Better Library and Learning Space

Projects, trends and ideas

Edited by
Les Watson

Contents

Case studies	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Contributors	xi
Introduction – about this book Les Watson	xix
PART 1 PROJECTS AND TRENDS	1_
Introduction Les Watson	3
1 UK projects and trends Les Watson and Jan Howden	5
2 US projects and trends Matthew Simon	21
3 China projects and trends Hugh Anderson	37
4 Hong Kong projects and trends Bob Fox and Peter E. Sidorko	49
5 European projects and trends Joyce Sternheim and Rob Bruijnzeels	61
6 Australasian projects and trends Roland Sussex, Peter Tregloan and Phil Long	75
Summary to Part 1 Les Watson	90

PART 2 TRENDS AND IDEAS	93
Introduction	95
Les Watson
7 Library space and technology	97
Les Watson
8 Library space and learning	109
Les Watson and Jan Howden
9 Key ideas on space	117
Les Watson
10 Thinking it through	131
Les Watson
Summary to Part 2	145
Les Watson
PART 3 IDEAS AND FUTURES	147
Introduction	149
Les Watson
11 Beyond space: access is all – or is it?	151
David Baker
12 Thinking inside the box	159
Colin Allan
13 Nothing has changed/everything has changed – the enduring aspects of learning	167
Hugh Anderson
14 Books, nooks and MOOCs	175
Jo Dane
15 The researcher's view: context is critical	183
Sheila Corrall and Ray Lester
16 Libraries in the network society: evolution, revolution, extinction?	193
Chris Batt
17 Powered by learning: developing models of provision to meet the expectations of new generations of students	201
Graham Bulpitt
18 The library has left the building	209
Joyce Sternheim and Rob Buijnzeels

19	Beyond analogue: the learning studio as media-age library Kyle Dickson	215
20	3D libraries for 3D smarting Jef Staes	223
21	Learning landscapes, the library and the University of Lincoln: efficiency, effectiveness, expression and experimentation Mike Neary and Sam Williams	231
22	Viral design: learners building better environments together Stephen Heppell	241
23	The interior designer's view Val Clugston	249
24	Furniture fit for the future – a brief exploration of library and learning furniture today and for the coming generation Paul White	259
25	Conclusions Les Watson	269
	Index	273