

U.S. Trade Policy in a Globalizing Era

JAMES SHOCH

The University of North Carolina

Chapel Hill and London

	Preface	ix
	Introduction	1
1	Parties and Trade Policy: A Theoretical Framework	n
2	Trade Policy and Party Politics from the Civil War to 1980	47
3	The First Reagan Administration: Democratic Pressure and White House Retreat	71
4	Partisanship Heats Up: The Trade Policy Explosion of 1985-1986	94
5	The One-hundredth Congress: Trade Legislation and Presidential Politics	116
6	The Bush Years: Opening Japan, Negotiating NAFTA	137
7	Clinton's First Two Years in Office: Trade Activism on All Fronts	161
3	Trade Liberalization Grinds to a Halt, 1995-1998	198
9	Trade Liberalization Set Back Again, Then Renewed?: The Battle in Seattle and PNTR with China	227
	Conclusion	255