

Sincerity in Politics and International Relations

Edited by Sorin Baiasu and Sylvie Loriaux

Contents

Notes on contributors vii

Introduction 1
SYLVIE LORIAUX

PART I
Publicity 15

1 Political deception: lowering the bar 17
GLEN NEWBY

2 The role of public reason's principle of sincerity 32
ENRICO ZOFFOLI

3 Speaking on morality's behalf: when one should be silent and why 46
MARK EVANS

4 What can we learn about political corruption from Kant's conceptions of honesty, publicity and truthfulness? 60
DORON NAVOT

PART II
Rhetoric 75

5 The political rhetoric of administrative ethics:
Obama vs. the cynics 77
ANDERS BERG-SØRENSEN

6 A Kantian rhetoric of sincerity: politics, truth and truthfulness	92
PAMELA SUE ANDERSON
7 Making sense: the possibility of truthfulness in politics	109
ESTHER ABIN
8 On doubt and otherness: deconstructing power and dissent	122
SIMONE CHELI
PART III
Institutions	137
9 Political dissimulation à la Kant: two limits of the sincerity requirement	139
SORIN BAIASU
10 Pretending peace: provisional political trust and sincerity in Kant and Améry	156
MARGUERITE LA CAZE
11 Governing by trust: sincerity as a procedural fairness norm	173
ZSOLT BODA
12 Truth-telling and right-speaking in European integration politics: from theory to practice and back	189
CATHERINE GUISAN
Index	205