

The Globalization of Merchant Banking before 1850

The case of Huth & Co.

Manuel Llorca-Jaña

Contents

List of figures	xi
List of tables	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction	1
1 Early life and activities of Frederick Huth, founder of the company, c.1777–1822	11
2 Expansion of the firm during the 1820s–1830s and the South American branches	29
3 Huth & Co.’s Spanish and German connections during the 1820s–1840s	55
4 The Liverpool branch, agents in Britain and the US connection	79
5 A global enterprise of trade and lending	101
6 Risk-management credit strategies	117
7 Conclusions	136
Bibliography	145
Index	155