

Forty Years' Experience with the OECD Code of Liberalisation of Capital Movements

ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Table of Contents

Summary and Conclusions .....	7
1. The OECD Codes-based approach to liberalisation in an evolving global context.....	7
2. Drawing it all together – Lessons and conclusions .....	14
3. Extending and sharing the OECD experience .....	19
Chapter I. Institutional Framework and Policy Debate .....	21
1. A historical perspective on capital mobility .....	21
2. Major factors driving exchange control strategies in the post-war period .....	23
3. Policy responses to 1997-98 international financial crises: the international governance debate .....	33
4. Linkages between domestic financial sector development and capital account liberalisation: review of the literature .....	41
Notes .....	53
Chapter II. The Role of the OECD in Promoting Liberalisation of Capital Movements .....	57
Introduction .....	57
1. The Codes of Liberalisation: structure and implementation .....	58
2. Liberalisation experiences in older OECD member countries .....	62
3. The liberalisation experience of recent OECD members a question of governance .....	77
Appendix. Stylised indicators of domestic financial development and international         financial liberalisation in the OECD constituency 1958-1999 .....	105
Notes .....	112
Selected Bibliography .....	117
Annex. Case Studies of Financial Liberalisation in Four OECD Countries .....	125
Czech Republic .....	126
1. Factors of importance to the build-up of the currency turmoil .....	126
2. Policy responses and the pace of structural reform – evaluation .....	130
3. Conclusions: governance problems and institutional weaknesses .....	132
Notes .....	134

Finland .....	136
1. Introduction .....	136
2. Finnish financial markets .....	136
3. The liberalisation process .....	138
4. Macroeconomic conditions .....	144
5. Supervision .....	147
6. Experiences with liberalisation .....	148
Notes .....	150
Bibliography .....	153
France .....	155
1. Introduction: Capital and exchange control from World War II to the 1980s .....	155
2. A strategic reorientation leading to renewed external financial liberalisation .....	159
3. The liberalisation of trade-related foreign exchange operations and the evolution towards a market-financed economy (1984-1986) .....	160
4. The liberalisation of most capital account transactions (1986-1987) .....	162
5. Towards total abolition of capital controls (1988-1990) .....	163
6. Conclusion: lessons from the French experience .....	164
Notes .....	165
Portugal .....	166
1. Introduction .....	166
2. Background – revolution, nationalisations and liberalisation .....	167
3. Sustained regime change towards convergence .....	168
4. The bank privatisation process .....	169
5. Monetary and exchange rate policies .....	171
6. Financial liberalisation and convergence .....	173
7. Conclusions .....	173
Notes .....	175
Bibliography .....	176
List of Boxes
Development and refinement of financial system standards and assessment methodology .....	35
Financial Stability Forum – 12 key standards for sound financial systems .....	37
Banking crises: individual bank failure, general fragility and systemic crisis .....	51
Korea's five-year membership of the OECD: example of a shared learning process .....	103
The main steps of financial deregulation in France (1948-1997) .....	156
Prudential regulation in France (1990-2000) .....	163