

THE HISTORY OF DEVELOPMENT

From Western Origins to Global Faith

NEW EDITION, REVISED AND EXPANDED

I.

GILBERT RIST

Translated by Patrick Camiller

C

ZED BOOKS

London & New York

CONTENTS

Preface to the Second Edition	vii
Introduction	i
i: Definitions of Development	8
Conventional Thinking • A Methodological Word of Caution • Elements of a Definition • A Scandalous Definition? • 'Development' as an Element in the Religion of Modernity
2 Metamorphoses of a Western Myth	25
What the Metaphor Implies • Landmarks in the Western View of History • Conclusion
3 The Making of a World System	47
Colonization • The League of Nations and the Mandate System • Conclusion
4 The Invention of Development	69
President Truman's Point Four • A New World-view: 'Underdevelopment' • US Hegemony • A New Paradigm • The 'Development' Age
5 The International Doctrine and Institutions Take Root	80
The Bandung Conference • The New International 'Development' Agencies
6 Modernization Poised between History and Prophecy	93
A Philosophy of History: Rostow's Stages of Economic Growth • Anti-communism or Marxism without Marx? • Dissident Voices

7	The Periphery and the Understanding of History Neo-Marxism in the United States • The Latin American Dependentistas • A New Paradigm, but Age-old Presuppositions	109
8	Self-Reliance: The Communal Past as a Model for the Future " " Ujamaa and the Tanzanian Experience • The Principles of Self-Reliance • Possible Futures for Self-Reliance	123
9	The Triumph of Third-Worldism The New International Economic Order • An Original Voice: The 1975 Dag Hammarskjold Foundation Report on Another Development • In the Wake of the NIEO: Further Proposals • The 'Basic Needs' Approach • Conclusion	140
10	The Environment, or the New Nature of 'Development' The Return to Classical Economics Plus a Few Humanitarian Extras • 'Sustainable Development' or Growth Everlasting? • The Earth Summit • Reflections on Deliberate Ambiguity	171
11	A Mixture of Realism and Fine Sentiments The South Commission • The UNDP and 'Human Development'	197
12	The Postmodern Illusion: Globalization as Simulacrum of 'Development' On the Usefulness of Talking at Cross-purposes • Organizations on Reprieve or in Mutation? • Globalization, or Back to Normal • Virtual Reality as a Refuge for Continuing Belief • Beyond 'Development'	211
13	Some Thoughts on What is to be Done	238
14	The Struggle against Poverty: Slogan and Alibi	249
	APPENDIX I: President Truman's Point Four Message	259
	APPENDIX II: Declaration on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order	261
	Bibliography	266
	Index	275