Contents

Acknowledgments

Introduction 1
Rostow, the Policy Sciences, and Modernization Theory
The Rhetoric of Inquiry and Critical Methodology

Chapter 1. From the Academy to the White House: Rostow, Foreign Aid, and Social Scientific Advocacy 11
  1916-50: The Early Years
  1951-59: The CENIS Years
  1960-68: Rostow and the Rise and Fall of the Alliance for Progress

  The Process of Economic Growth in the Intellectual and Political Contexts of Cold War Modernization
  Rostow contra Marx
  Human Motivation in Rostovian Theory
  Narrating the Propensities for Economic Growth: The Paradigm Case of the British Industrial Revolution

Chapter 3. Ideas in Action: A Proposal: Key to an Effective Foreign Policy 49
  The Princeton Inn Conference of 1954: Rhetorical Invention in Foreign Aid Policy
  From the Princeton Inn Proposal to the Millikan-Rostow Thesis: Keeping Up the Fight
  Modeling Democracy: The "Diffusion of Power" and Development Aid Policy
  "Peaceful Revolution" and the Stages of Economic Growth