

LIFE
EMPIRES

AN EIGHTEENTH-CENTURY HISTORY

EMMA ROTHSCHILD

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS
PRINCETON AND OXFORD

CONTENTS

• INTRODUCTION •

IDEAS AND SENTIMENTS 1

• CHAPTER ONE •

SETTING OUT 11

The Four Sisters and Seven Brothers 15

Difficult Circumstances 23

Tragic News from the Indies 29

The Frontiers of Empire in the West 34

Small Congratulatory Elephants 45

• CHAPTER TWO •

COMING HOME 59

The Finances of the Family 60

The Politics of the East and West Indies 68

The Arts and Sciences of Enlightenment 76

The Ruins of the Indies so

Intran Bell alias Belinda 87

Joseph Knight 91

• CHAPTER THREE •

ENDING AND LOSS 97

The Detritus of Empire 99

The James Johnstones 105

Indian Yellow Satin 109

The Treasurer 112

Distant Destinies 11 e

• CHAPTER FOUR •

ECONOMIC LIVES 121

- Possible Empires 125
- What Is the State? 131
- What Was, and What Was Not Law 137
- A Society of Persons 141
- A Moderate Empire 146 "
- Economic Theories 148

• CHAPTER FIVE •

EXPERIENCES OF EMPIRE 154

- Slavery in the British Empire 154
- "This Age of Information" 170
- Family Histories 185
- Connections of Things 197
- Intimate Lives 202

• CHAPTER SIX •

WHAT IS ENLIGHTENMENT? 210

- The Sect of Philosophers 211
- The Milieux of Enlightenment: Books and Booksellers 220
- Legal Information 224
- Clerks and Clerics 231
- The Milieux of Political Thought 239
- The Atmosphere of Society 247
- The Enlightenment of the Johnstones 252
- The Coexistence of Enlightenment and Oppression 258

• CHAPTER SEVEN •

HISTORIES OF SENTIMENTS 263

- The Eye of the Mind 263
- The History of the Human Mind 266

CONTENTS IX

Family Secrets	270
The Discontinuity of Size and Scenes	277
The Incompleteness of Information	279

• CHAPTER EIGHT •

OTHER PEOPLE 284

The Johnstones and the Mind	285
Intran Bell alias Belinda	291
Other People	299

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 303

APPENDIX 307

ABBREVIATIONS 309

NOTES 311

MAPS 463

INDEX 469