

TOURISM AND CULTURAL CHANGE

Series Editors: Professor Mike Robinson, Centre for Tourism and Cultural Change, Leeds Metropolitan University, Leeds, UK and Dr Alison Phipps, University of Glasgow, Scotland, UK

Rural Tourism Development

Localism and Cultural Change

E.Wanda George, Heather Mair and Donald G. Reid

CHANNEL VIEW PUBLICATIONS

Bristol • Buffalo • Toronto

Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction to Rural Tourism Development	1
Introduction	1
The Role of Social Theory: The Benefits of a Political Economy Approach	2
Dominant Themes Underpinning this Text	4
Tourism in a globalizing world	4
Cultural change and the processes of rural community commodification	5
The importance of resistance	6
The rural appeal	7
Defining Rural and the Rural Landscape	7
Tourism Development in Rural Areas	10
Outline of the Book	11
Methodological Approach	13
Case study approach: A method, a format	13
Research methods	16
Contribution to Research i	16
Analytical Framework	17
Chapter 2: Political Economy of Rural Tourism Development in Canada	20
Introduction	20
Key Terms: Neoliberalism and Restructuring	20
The Context of Canadian Development and Rural Policy: A Brief Historical Overview	21
Rural Development: The Attraction of Tourism	28
Impacts: The Opportunities and Challenges of Tourism and Rural Development	31
Conclusion	33
Chapter 3: The Case of Lunenburg, Nova Scotia	34
Introduction	34
Key Theoretical Concepts: Commodification of Culture; Gentrification	34

Commodification of culture	34
Gentrification	36
Research Approach	37
The Case of Lunenburg	38
Background	38
History of Lunenburg	39
Collapse of the fishery in Atlantic Canada	41
Cultural tourism in Nova Scotia	42
Tourism Development in Lunenburg	43
A 'responsive' approach to tourism development in Lunenburg, Nova Scotia	43
Tourism's trajectory in Lunenburg	44
The UNESCO World Heritage Site designation process	45
State of the fishing industry in Lunenburg since 1995.	49
Reconnecting to Theoretical Concepts	50
Commodification of Lunenburg's cultural assets.	50
Gentrification in Lunenburg	53
Conclusion	56
Lunenburg's response - tourism: A shift to a service-based industry.	56
Lunenburg's future.	59
Chapter 4: The Case of Port Stanley, Ontario	62
Introduction	62
Key Theoretical Concepts: Rejuvenation; Integration	64
Research Approach	64
The Case of Port Stanley.	65
Background	65
History.	67
Port Stanley today.	70
Tourism development in Port Stanley.	70
Rejuvenation, Integration and Tourism in Port Stanley.	73
Conclusion	76
Chapter 5: The Case of Vulcan, Alberta	80
Introduction	80
Key Theoretical Concepts: Contrived Tourism Developments; Contested Meanings of Place	81
Research Approach	84
The Case of Vulcan, Alberta	85
Background	85
History.	85

Tourism Development in Vulcan.	87
The Rural Initiatives Program: A community-visioning session.	87
Building a (Contested and Contrived) Tourism Image.	88
Reconnecting to Theoretical Concepts.	91
Contesting and negotiating the meanings of community . . .	91
Conclusions.	92
Chapter 6: The Case of Canso, Nova Scotia	94
Introduction.	94
Key Theoretical Concepts: Tourism Destination Development; Community/Place Identity; Cultural Tourism (Creative Cultural Industries).	96
Tourism destination development	97
Community/place identity.	98
Cultural tourism and the role of the creative cultural industries (arts and music).	99
Research Approach.	101
The Case of Canso.	101
Background.	101
History.	102
Tourism Development in Canso.	105
A 'deliberate' approach to tourism development in Canso.	105
The tourism event/attraction and Stan Rogers.	106
Reconnecting to Key Concepts.	110
Community participation/volunteerism.	110
Community and identity.	112
Sociability effects of cultural (arts and music) tourism	113
Conclusions.	115
Chapter 7: Synopsis: From Case Studies to Premises	116
Introduction.	116
Cross-case analysis.	116
From Case Studies to Premises.	117
Conclusion.	123
Chapter 8: The Complex Role of Local Culture in Rural Tourism. .124
Introduction.	124
Key Theoretical Concepts: Local Culture; Culture Economy; Commodification of Culture.	125
Tourism.	125

What is Culture?	127
A culture economy.	128
A dichotomous relationship between tourism and culture.	129
Tourism as Continuity.	129
Peace.	130
Cultural understanding/appreciation.	130
Cultural revitalization	130
Economic revitalization.	131
Affirming and promoting community identity.	131
Tourism as Rupture.	132
Cultural conflict	132
Leakage and loss of local control.	133
Staged authenticity.	133
Acculturation/loss of diversity.	134
Cultural appropriation.	134
A Cultural Turn.	135
Conclusion.	135
Challenges for rural communities.	135
Understanding culture and tourism.	135
Redefining the concept of commodifying culture.	136
Determining what aspects of culture to commodify.	136
Chapter 9: Changing the Rural Landscape.	138
Introduction.	138
Key Theoretical Concepts: Gentrification; Branding and Image.	138
What is Gentrification?.	138
Gentrifying Rural Landscapes and Rural Communities.	141
Tourism as a Force of Gentrification.	144
Gentrification: Future trends.	148
Building the Rural Brand: Theming and Imaging the Countryside.	150
Branding and theming	151
Rural communities as urban playgrounds.	154
Sense of place.	156
Conclusion.	157
Chapter 10: Notions of Community.	159
Introduction.	159
Key Theoretical Concepts: Community; Community Development; Tourism Planning	159

The Idea of Community	159
The Enemies of Community	164
Community Development and Cultural Commodification in Rural Tourism Planning	166
What are Community Development and Citizen Participation?	167
The Importance of Involvement of Community in Tourism Development	171
Community Development is not a Panacea	173
Developmental Intent of Citizen Involvement in the Tourism Planning Process	174
Chapter 11: Rural Community Sustainability and Sustainable Rural Tourism	177
Introduction	177
Key Theoretical Concepts: Sustainable Development; Sustainable Tourism; Cultural Capital	177
Sustainability (Sustainable Development)	177
Sustainable tourism	178
UNWTO/UNEP global goals for sustainable tourism	179
Sustainable tourism in Canada	180
Rural Communities and Sustainability	182
Community Capacity and Sustainability	183
Human, social, natural and finance/built capital	184
Social cohesion, social relations and social sustainability	187
Culture as Capital	189
Cultural capital and intangibles	193
New Conceptualizations of Community Capital for Sustainability	194
The Future: Community Capacity and Rural Sustainability	196
Conclusion	197
Chapter 12: The Role of Public Policy	199
Introduction	199
Key Theoretical Concepts: Public Policy; Tourism Policy; Social Policy	199
What is Public Policy?	199
Tourism and Public Policy	200
The role of values and ideology	201
Tourism Policy in Practice: A Public-Private Mix	202
The international context	202

Tourism policy in Canada	203
Development Policy and Tourism: A Conflict of Values?	205
Place promotion	205
Sustainable Tourism and the Role of Policy	206
Public-Private Partnership Policy Initiatives	209
New Directions: A Role for Social Policy in Tourism Planning?	210
What Constitutes Sound National and Regional Community Development Policy in Rural Areas?	211
Conclusion	212
Chapter 13: Presenting a Process for Tourism Planning that Engages Community	215
Introduction	215
Key Theoretical Concepts: Community Tourism Planning Process; Community Engagement	215
Challenging The Prerogative of Economics and Business in the Tourism Planning Process	216
Community Visioning Sets the Framework and Controls for Tourism Development	217
Setting the Stage for Planning the Tourism Product	223
A Sample Community Tourism Development Process	224
Key Attributes of this Approach	228
Chapter 14: The Way Forward: Rethinking Rural Tourism Research and Practice	232
Introduction	232
Key Theoretical Concepts: Tourism Rural Development; Community Tourism Planning	233
What constitutes development?	235
What motivates development?	236
Who is in control of the development?	237
What is the appropriate development process?	238
What constitutes the knowledge base for development?	239
Managing Rural Tourism Successfully	242
A New Analytical Framework for Understanding Tourism Development	242
Planning Tourism Development Strategies	246
Conclusion	247
References	250
Index	267